Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

SPEAK, LORD, WE ARE LISTENING

In today's first reading God keeps calling out in the night to a sleeping boy. Neither the boy, Samuel, nor his teacher, Eli, understands who is calling. But God's persistence convinces them. Samuel is then ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. "Speak, for your servant is listening" (1 Samuel 3:10).

In the Gospel Jesus is out teaching. Various people notice him and begin to gather around. They soon become disciples and, like the young Samuel, are ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. "Speak," they say, "we are listening."

God's voice is always with us, awake or asleep. It swirls around us like fog on a waterfront, enveloping us, gently urging us to wake up, to listen. Awareness of the voice comes first; then willingness to listen; then, in time, the decision to act, to live according to God's word. Let's ask today for the ability to keep our ears open so we don't miss God's voice.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening (1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19).

Psalm — Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will (Psalm 40).

Second Reading — Your bodies are members of Christ; glorify God in your body (1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20).

Gospel — The first disciples saw where Jesus was staying and they stayed with him (John 1:35-42).

Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

HABLA, SEÑOR, ESTAMOS ESCUCHANDO

En la primera lectura de hoy Dios llama repetidas veces en la noche a un niño dormido. Ni el niño, Samuel, ni su maestro, Elí, entienden quién está llamando. Pero la persistencia de Dios los convence. Samuel ya está listo; no para hacer algo todavía, pero dispuestos a escuchar. "Habla Señor, tu siervo te escucha" (1 Samuel 3:10).

En el Evangelio, Jesús está afuera enseñando. Varias personas lo ven y comienzan a reunirse alrededor. Pronto se convierten en discípulos y, al igual que el joven Samuel, están listos, no para hacer algo todavía, pero dispuestos a escuchar. "Habla", dicen, "te escuchamos".

La voz de Dios está siempre con nosotros, ya sea que estemos despiertos o dormidos. Se arremolina a nuestro alrededor como la niebla en una costa envolviéndonos, suavemente nos urge a despertar, a escuchar. Estar conscientes de la voz es lo primero; luego la voluntad de escuchar; y más luego, con el tiempo, la decisión de actuar, de vivir según la Palabra de Dios. Vamos a pedir hoy por la capacidad de mantener los oídos abiertos para que no se pierda la voz de Dios.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — "Habla, Señor, tu siervo te escucha" (1 Samuel 3:3-10, 19).

Salmo — Aquí estoy, Señor, para hacer tu voluntad (Salmo 40 [39]).

Segunda lectura — Tu cuerpo es un templo del Espíritu Santo (1 Corintios 6:13-15, 17-20).

Evangelio — Los primeros discípulos empiezan a seguir a Jesús y declaran que es el Mesías (Juan 1:35-42).

Sunday Mass Dispensation

Bishop Barber has dispensed the obligation to attend Sunday and Holy Day Masses until further notice. Although the faithful are dispensed from their obligation to attend Mass, they are encouraged to spend time in prayer on Sunday (such as following a Live Stream Mass or participating in a spiritual or corporal act of mercy).

Giving Made Simple

During this time when our public Mass is suspended, please continue to offer your support to St. Anthony with your monetary gifts. These gifts allows us to pay our bills. Please continue giving to the Sunday collection basket by using GIVE+; the online way of giving. Visit the St. Anthony website and click on the pull down "About" and click "Online Giving". Sign up for your account today and continue giving. Or you may drop your Sunday envelope(s) in the U.S. Mailbox in the front by the Church entrance. You decide how to give, but please continue to give.

Help Beautify the Sanctuary with Flowers

Donate flowers to decorate our Sanctuary. Call the church office at (925) 625-2048 for more information.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

The stories of the call of Samuel and of the first disciples in John's Gospel help us begin to understand the nature of God's call. It is not a work order from a distant God to carry out a specific task, but an invitation to participate in what God is already doing. The journey begins with God's intentions and activity. After the initial moment of call, God is shown to be actively leading these ordinary people to partner in God's work. For ourselves, we might not experience a single or dramatic moment of call. God's call can take many forms. But like Samuel, and like Jesus' disciples, we are invited into a relationship of trust and friendship with God. We too are invited to employ the gifts God has given us, always in dialogue with our God, in our daily lives.

OUR DEEPEST DESIRES

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus' first spoken words in the Gospel of John: "What are you looking for?" This penetrating question reverberates throughout John's Gospel. The disciples who form Jesus' first community, and many others who meet Jesus during his life, are drawn to him, seeking something they can't quite name. As Jesus called and formed his community of disciples, he probed their hearts and allowed them to probe his heart. They shared their deepest needs, hopes, and commitments.

Jesus' words might be directed to us, here and now. Sometimes we struggle to name what we really want. In our faith journey, in prayer and in lived experience, we learn to share our dreams and also to open our hearts to know God's dreams. In time, with lots of practice, with many successes and failures, we learn to trust God to shape and to fulfill our deepest desires.

YOUR SERVANT IS LISTENING

We hear of young Samuel today, dedicated to a life of service to God, under the guidance of Eli, a Temple priest. Twice, Samuel hears the call of God and says "Here I am" to Eli. At last Eli recognizes that it is God who is calling Samuel. When Samuel hears God a third time, Samuel does not say "Here I am," but "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening." We can see a subtle shift as Samuel moves away from announcing his intention to serve and more clearly opens himself to God's voice. Samuel allows God to take the initiative, and attends first to God's intentions rather than his own.

Samuel's story helps us to remember that accepting God's call is not only about a new chapter in our personal story. Our acceptance is, more profoundly, a new moment in God's story. Even in our smallest "yes," God celebrates our partnership in God's great work. Through our openness and acceptance, God has new opportunities to bring all of us into loving unity with God.

Fr. Rafael's Message To The Community

Dear St. Anthony Parishioners,
Happy New Year!!! Even though it is already our third Sunday in the year 2021 I want to take this opportunity to send you my greetings and best wishes for you in this New Year. How quickly time passes. I would like to thank everyone for the Christmas cards, messages and gifts that I received and the wonderful Birthday Drive by also filled with gifts and wishes. I haven't felt so loved as I did that day. May the Lord reward you abundantly. Even in the midst of this Pandemic, you keep inspiring me and I am truly grateful for the gift of your participation, devoutness and faithfulness here at Mass every Sunday, as well as those who continue to work their ministries and serve others. Even in this time of pandemic we are thankful and rejoice in the many blessings that God has bestowed on us. We gathered outside, enduring the summer heat and the winter wet and cold as we grow in our relationship with Christ and we will continue. We wear masks and social distance; we livestream Mass and still come to the table of the Lord. Did I ever thought of serving on this scenario when I was discerning in my journey to the priesthood, not at all: Your Faithfulness has made me a missionary under the tents!!! Don't let this pandemic stop you my Faithful from their God. I acknowledge we have lost many family members to this virus, separated by this infection, but not the love we shared in our hearts and minds. It has been difficult and the pandemic still rages here in our community, nation and around the world, let us keep each other in prayer but let us not stop. On the horizon a vaccine has been developed and we wait for this to arrest the spread of the virus. Our Magisterium has proclaimed that this vaccine is morally acceptable according to the Canon of the Church and we should get this vaccination when it becomes available to us. Let us continue to pray for an end to this pandemic, the bringer of pain and sorrow. Do not let these tragedies numb us into indifference. The year that just ended showed us how we usually respond when faced with the unknown, seems we love to stock up on what we need. I want to invite you to stock up, to focus on provisions for our journey of faith. Let us rethink our priorities. Where is Jesus in our life? Have we seen the face of Jesus in those we meet? Will I be a better person after this pandemic then when the crisis started? Our new year is bringing good news to us, on February 1st, the Bishop has promised St. Anthony a priest to help me to serve you. I am most grateful for all your support this past year and I humbly ask that you continue to support St. Anthony with your monetary gifts. We still have bills to pay. Help keep our parish moving and growing. May the peace of God be with us in all that we do here in our parish and in your family life. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Rafael Hinojosa

Mensaje del Fr. Rafael a la Comunidad

Queridos Feligreses de San Antonio,

Feliz Año Nuevo!!! Aunque ya es nuestro tercer Domingo del año 2021, quería tomar esta oportunidad para mandarles mis saludos y mejores deseos para este Nuevo Año. Que pronto pasa el tiempo. Me gustaría agradecerles a todos por las tarjetas de Navidad, mensajes y regalos que recibí y el maravilloso desfile de cumpleaños que también estuvo lleno de regalos y buenos deseos. No me he sentido tan amado y querido como ese día. Que el Señor les pague y bendiga en abundancia. Incluso en medio de esta pandemia, ustedes siguen inspirándome y estoy verdaderamente agradecido por el regalo de su participación, devoción y fidelidad aquí en la Misa todos los Domingos, así como por aquellos que continúan trabajando en sus ministerios y sirviendo a los demás. Incluso en este tiempo de pandemia estamos agradecidos y nos regocijamos por las muchas bendiciones que Dios nos ha otorgado. Nos reunimos afuera soportando el calor del verano y el invierno húmedo y frío mientras crecemos en nuestra relación con Cristo y continuaremos. Usamos máscaras y distanciamiento social; transmitimos la Misa en directo a nuestros hogares y seguimos acudiendo a la mesa del Señor. ¿Pensé alguna vez en servir en este escenario cuando estaba discerniendo en mi camino hacia el sacerdocio, absolutamente no. Su fidelidad me ha convertido en un misionero bajo las carpas!!! No permitan que esta pandemia los detenga, mis Fieles de Dios. Reconozco que hemos perdido a muchos familiares a causa de este virus, separados por esta infección, pero no el amor que compartimos en nuestros corazones y mentes. Ha sido difícil y la pandemia todavía hace estragos aquí en nuestra comunidad, nación y en todo el mundo. Permítamonos mantenernos en oración el uno por el otro, pero no nos detengamos. En el horizonte se ha desarrollado una vacuna y esperamos que esto detenga la propagación del virus. Nuestro Magisterio ha proclamado que esta vacuna es moralmente aceptable de acuerdo con el Canon de la Iglesia y deberíamos recibir esta vacuna cuando esté disponible para nosotros. Sigamos orando por el fin de esta pandemia, que trae dolor y tristeza. No dejen que estas tragedias nos adormezcan hasta la indiferencia. Este año que acaba de terminar nos mostró cómo solemos responder cuando nos enfrentamos a lo desconocido, parece que nos encanta abastecernos de lo que necesitamos. Quiero invitarlos a abastecerse, a concentrarse en las provisiones para nuestro camino de fe. Reconsideremos nuestras prioridades. ¿Dónde está Jesús en nuestra vida? ¿Hemos visto el rostro de Jesús en aquellos con quienes nos encontramos? ¿Seré una mejor persona después de esta pandemia que cuando comenzó la crisis? Nuestro año nuevo nos trae buenas noticias ya que el 1 de Febrero, el Obispo le prometió a San Antonio un Sacerdote para ayudarme a servirles a ustedes. Estoy muy agradecido por todo su apoyo el año pasado y les pido humildemente que continúen apoyando a San Antonio con sus donaciones monetarias. Todavía tenemos cuentas por pagar. Ayuden a mantener a nuestra parroquia en movimiento y crecimiento. Que la paz de Dios esté con nosotros en todo lo que hacemos aquí en nuestra parroquia y en su vida familiar. Que la gracia de nuestro Señor Jesucristo esté con ustedes.

Suyos en Cristo,

Fr. Rafael Hinojosa

Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

NUESTROS MÁS PROFUNDOS DESEOS

En el Evangelio de Juan que se leyó hoy, escuchamos las primeras palabras de Jesús. “¿Qué están buscando?” Esta pregunta penetrante resuena a lo largo del Evangelio de Juan. Los discípulos que formaron la primera comunidad de Jesús, y muchos otros que conocieron a Jesús durante su vida, se sienten atraídos por él, buscando algo que no pueden nombrar. Cuando Jesús llamó y formó a su primera comunidad, él examinó sus corazones y les permitió que examinaran el de él. Compartieron sus necesidades, esperanzas y compromisos más profundos. Las palabras de Jesús podrían estar dirigidas hacia nosotros, aquí y ahora. A veces nos esforzamos por nombrar lo que realmente queremos. En nuestro viaje de fe, en la oración y en la experiencia vivida, aprendemos a compartir nuestros sueños y también a abrir nuestros corazones para conocer los sueños de Dios. Con el tiempo, con mucha práctica, con varios éxitos y fracasos, aprendemos a confiar en Dios para dar forma y cumplir nuestros deseos más profundos.

TU SIERVO ESCUCHA

Hoy escuchamos a un joven Samuel, dedicado a una vida de servicio a Dios, bajo la guía de Elías, un sacerdote del Templo. Dos veces Samuel escucha el llamado de Dios y responde a Elías “Aquí estoy”. Por fin Elías reconoce que es Dios quien está llamando a Samuel. Cuando Samuel escucha el llamado por tercera vez, Samuel no responde “Aquí estoy”, sino “Habla Señor, que tu siervo escucha”. Podemos ver un sutil cambio cuando Samuel se aleja de anunciar su intención y se abre más claramente a la voz de Dios. Samuel permite que Dios tome la iniciativa, y atiende primero a las intenciones de Dios en lugar de las suyas propias.

La historia de Samuel nos ayuda a recordar que aceptar la llamada de Dios no es sólo acerca de un nuevo capítulo en nuestra historia personal. Nuestra aceptación es más profunda, un momento nuevo en la historia de Dios. Incluso en nuestro más pequeño “sí”, Dios celebra nuestra participación en su gran obra. A través de nuestra apertura y aceptación, Dios tiene nuevas oportunidades para llevarnos a todos a una amorosa unidad con Dios.
