Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FALSE PROPHETS, TRUE PROPHETS

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice, the Holy One of God. The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. We also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. And today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths.

Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

FALSOS PROFETAS, VERDADEROS PROFETAS

Hoy nos enteramos en Deuteronomio de que las palabras de Dios llenarán la boca de un profeta verdadero, pero un profeta falso, en cierto modo, pone meras palabras mortales en boca de Dios. En el Evangelio según San Marcos, vemos las enseñanzas de Jesús y la curación como obra de un verdadero profeta, uno lleno de la autoridad de la propia voz de Dios, el Santo de Dios.

La historia de nuestra Iglesia está llena de profetas, verdaderos y falsos. Pero en el Evangelio de hoy nos enteramos de que la fama de Jesús se extendió porque enseñaba con autoridad; su autoridad no procedía de que Él fuera popular o famoso. También aprendemos de Él, en sus enfrentamientos en el desierto cuando fue tentado por Satanás, que cualquiera puede citar la Sagrada Escritura, incluso en contra de los propósitos de Dios. Y hoy nos enteramos de que su autoridad no era como la de los escribas, que ocupaban los cargos oficiales de autoridad religiosa en aquella época. Nuestro trabajo consiste en hacer nuestro mejor esfuerzo para discernir los verdaderos profetas que hay en medio de nosotros, y también nosotros mismos ser verdaderos profetas. El salmista nos dice cómo hacerlo: no endurecer nuestro corazón cuando Dios habla. Si de verdad escuchamos a Dios, serán Sus palabras Dios las que llenarán nuestra boca.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Who speaks for God? How can we determine which are authentic, authoritative expressions of God's intentions, and which are false? Today's readings explore the question of authority in distinct ways. In Deuteronomy, Moses prepares the people of Israel for his coming death, indicating that God will raise up a new prophet to guide them. Mark describes Jesus as God's authentic voice, by the authority of his teaching and the authority he commands over an unclean spirit. In both, authority comes directly from God. Authority comes from an intimate relationship with God and with God's people. God's spokesperson is one who teaches, protects, and heals the people loved by God. As always, there is great need today for leaders in our communities who radically trust God to work through them. Let us pray that each person who performs in a role of leadership may speak for God with an authentic voice.

RESCUE FROM BONDAGE

Uniquely in the Gospel of Mark, Jesus' public ministry begins with a direct confrontation with an unclean spirit. Today's Gospel passage reflects a recurring theme in Mark, that Jesus' coming is part of a cosmic battle between God and evil forces. It was commonly believed that many spirits were present in the world, and some sought to control human beings. Mark asserts that in Jesus, God has come to rescue humanity, to free us from every form of bondage.

In today's passage, the unclean spirit does not surrender power quietly. After complaints, convulsions, and screams, the spirit finally departs. As we may witness in our own experience, that which binds us—fear, injustice, resentment—often departs only after a mighty struggle. Confronting anything “unclean” in our hearts, our institutions, or our society often involves a long journey toward freedom. May we sustain our efforts and our trust in God, during these long struggles.

PROPHETS IN DAILY LIFE

Moses assures Israel of God's continued presence by promising a new prophet. Like Moses, the prophet will be raised up directly by God. But how to distinguish a true prophet from a false one? Many claim to speak for God. The task is complicated by the fact that often, true prophets make waves, cause trouble, and disturb how things are normally done. Many simply don't want to hear what God is saying, because it threatens their privilege, comfort, or sense of identity.

Like the Israelites in today's reading, it can be hard for us to bear the voice of God. For God calls us out of all the ways we avoid opening our hearts to God and to others. And so, God raises up surprise prophets in daily life. These are all the people and events who summon us to fuller maturity in love and in faith. We are called upon to always be ready for the prophetic word that may emerge from God's surprises.

Bishop Barber's Statement of Support For California Catholic Conference COVID-19 Vaccine Stance

“The Catholic Church endorses the use of the COVID vaccines. I endorse the use of these vaccines. The National Catholic Bioethics Center, the bishops on the USCCB Pro-Life Committee and Doctrine committee (of which I am a member) have studied the issue and found this medicine morally acceptable. There are no cells in the vaccines that are derived from aborted human beings. I believe these vaccines are a gift from God, and appreciate the work scientists have done in such a short time to make them available.”

- Bishop Michael C. Barber, SJ

COVID-19 Vaccination

A safe, effective, no-cost COVID-19 vaccine will be available to everyone in California according to Contra Costa County Health Services. If you are a healthcare worker or are 65 years of age or older and would like to make a vaccination appointment visit www.https://coronavirus.cchealth.org/vaccine and complete the Vaccine Appointment-Request Form. Eligible residents who have difficulty using the form or have no internet access can request an appointment by calling 1-833-829-2626.

A COVID-19 vaccine is one of the most important tools to end the COVID-19 pandemic. The vaccine paired with other daily health habits, such as wearing face coverings and social distancing, will slow the spread of COVID-19 so businesses and schools can fully reopen and we can return to a more normal way of life.

FEAST OF FAITH

I Confess

One form of the penitential rite at the beginning of Mass is the traditional Confiteor, or "I confess," a prayer that was formerly prayed by the priest alone at the foot of the altar, but which is now prayed by the entire assembly. The Confiteor is at once personal—"I confess"—and communal, prayed aloud, together. We recognize that sin does not just separate us from God; sin comes between us and others, isolating us. We acknowledge that sin has many dimensions, individual and communal: sins of thought, sins of speech, sins of action, sins of omission. Sin is not something that happens to us; sin is something we do. In the Confiteor, we take responsibility for our own actions. The repeated insistence on our "fault," with the ritual gesture of striking the breast, an ancient sign of penitence, is not meant to lower our self-esteem. Rather, it acknowledges our human instinct to transfer the blame whenever we can ("The devil made me do it!"). This prayer stops us short. We take responsibility for ourselves, our actions, our failure to act. Then we cry out to God in those ancient words, Kyrie, eleison—Lord, have mercy. For the sinner who repents, there is mercy. This truth is at the heart of our faith, and it is where the Mass, our feast of faith, begins.

Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

RESCATE DE LA ESCLAVITUD

Únicamente en el Evangelio de Marcos, el ministerio de Jesús comienza con una confrontación directa con un espíritu inmundo. El pasaje del Evangelio de hoy refleja un tema recurrente en Marcos, que la venida de Jesús es parte una batalla cósmica entre Dios y las fuerzas del mal. Se creía comúnmente que muchos espíritus estaban presentes en el mundo, y algunos buscaban controlar a los seres humanos. Marcos afirma que, en Jesús, Dios ha venido a rescatar a la humanidad, a liberarnos de toda forma de esclavitud.

En el pasaje de hoy, el espíritu inmundo no entrega el poder en silencio. Después de quejarse, convulsionarse y gritar, el espíritu finalmente se va. Como podemos atestiguar en nuestra propia experiencia, lo que nos ata, el miedo, la injusticia, el resentimiento, a menudo se va sólo después de una poderosa lucha. Confrontar cualquier cosa “inmunda” en nuestros corazones, nuestras instituciones o nuestra sociedad a menudo implica un largo viaje hacia la libertad. Que podamos sostener nuestros esfuerzos y nuestra confianza en Dios, durante estas largas luchas.

LOS PROFETAS EN LA VIDA DIARIA

Moisés asegura a Israel la presencia continua de Dios prometiendo un profeta nuevo. Al igual que Moisés, el profeta será establecido por Dios. ¿Pero cómo distinguir a un verdadero profeta de un falso profeta? Muchos dicen hablar en nombre de Dios. La tarea se complica por el hecho de que a menudo, los verdaderos profetas hacen olas, ocasionan problemas y perturban la forma en cómo normalmente se hacen las cosas. Muchos simplemente no quieren escuchar lo que Dios está diciendo, porque eso amenaza su privilegio, su comodidad o su sentido de identidad.

Como los israelitas en la lectura de hoy, puede ser difícil para nosotros llevar la voz de Dios. Porque Dios nos llama de todas las maneras en que evitamos abrir nuestros corazones a Dios y a los demás. Y así, Dios establece profetas inesperados en la vida diaria. Estas son todas las personas y eventos que nos llaman a la madurez plena en el amor y en la fe. Estamos llamados a estar siempre listos para la palabra profética que pueda surgir de lo sorprendente de Dios.

FIESTA DE LA FE

Gloria a Dios en el cielo

A primera vista resulta contradictorio el dar gloria a quien es la gloria misma. Dios no necesita que le glorifiquemos, y nada de lo que hagamos, por bueno que sea, aumenta su gloria. Él es la gloria total, mucho antes de la creación del universo. ¿Por qué, pues le cantamos gloria? Por una necesidad nuestra de reconocer la grandeza divina y que en su grandeza nosotros también somos grandes. Este antiquísimo himno de alabanza, justo antes de la Oración colecta, marca el tono mismo de la celebración, así como su finalidad: la gloria de Dios; sea que se reconozca, se cante o se refleje en la vida humana. Desde esta perspectiva, toda la vida litúrgica de la Iglesia es un canto de alabanza a Dios, de glorificación, aun en su liturgia de exequias o cuando, movidos por el dolor o la tragedia humana, somos convocados a la oración comunitaria. Jesús mismo glorifica a su Padre con su muerte, no porque Dios se goce en la muerte de su Hijo, sino porque dicha muerte es el sello de fidelidad total a la voluntad divina. ¡Gloria a Dios en el cumplimiento de su voluntad!
