First Sunday of Advent

WATCHFUL CONFIDENCE

We the Church enter into Advent and the new liturgical year with a call for a watchful confidence. Our readings were originally addressed to communities undergoing great loss and confusion. Jeremiah speaks confidently of God fulfilling the ancient promises to Israel, even during a time of foreign invasion. Paul speaks of God leading the Church into holiness, while the community longs for the coming of Jesus. In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus speaks of powerful signs and of great confusion to come, but emphasizes that we may look forward knowing that God brings not cause for despair, but hope. We celebrate Advent to remind each other of God's faithfulness. We are to be watchful, to see how God is stirring up our world. God disturbs both our pride and our complacency, and brings us healing and justice. We prepare ourselves to welcome Jesus, confident that God indeed fulfills all these divine promises.

First Sunday of Advent

Today, whether at evening, morning, or midday, in many communities of different churches around the world, the first candle lighted in each Advent wreath silently but beautifully announces the beginning of a new liturgical year. This new beginning presents a grace-filled opportunity for us to resolve to live not simply according to the secular calendar of our commercialized society, but according to the spirit of the liturgy. There's nothing wrong—indeed there can be something quite holy—about planning to celebrate God's surprising gift of the Son by surprising our loved ones with thoughtful gifts at Christmas. But how important, amid the rush of holiday preparations, to take the time and to make the effort to appreciate Advent's early twilights and later sunrises, awash in the purples, deep blues, and even the dusky rose colors we associate with Advent. Thus we let nature's own "Advent" prompt reflections on the "Advent" that Jeremiah saw coming.

IMAGES OF THE END-TIMES

How forcefully today's scriptures challenge us to attend to the ominous nature of the Kingdom's definitive in-breaking! The call echoes through Jeremiah's prophecy: "In those days, in that time" and in Paul's letter: "at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones. Amen." The theme intensifies toward a crescendo in Luke: "there will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on earth . . . dismay and perplexity." People will be scared to death—literally—"in anticipation of what is coming upon the world," as "seas and waves roar" and "the powers of heaven will be shaken." And all of this will be just a prelude to "the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory." In the face of this "awful" (that is, filled-with-awe) ending, Jesus warns his disciples to guard against two equally debilitating extremes, both of which seem to be trademarks of our contemporary culture: deadening diversion on one hand, and frantic anxiety on the other.

PREPARATION FOR THE END-TIMES

In light of these predictions of frightening end-times, Jesus advises us to embrace his three-fold "Preparation for the End Program": (1) "Beware!" that is, be aware of what really matters, life's true priorities. (2) "Be vigilant at all times," that is, watchful for Christ's coming not only at the end but in the meantime, in family and neighbor, friend and stranger. (3) Above all, "pray." Prayer, communion with God, will help us to remember that for faithful disciples, The End of this world—or our own lives, whichever comes first—will be The Beginning of a joy no one can take from us, fullness of life that will

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

First Sunday of Advent

Grant your faithful, we pray, almighty God,
the resolve to run forth to meet your Christ
with righteous deeds at his coming,
so that, gathered at his right hand,
they may be worthy to possess the heavenly Kingdom.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

never end. How lovely if this Advent's renewal prepared us to look forward to the moment of Jesus' coming—in his glory or our death—not as a cataclysmic disaster, but as a reason for which to "stand erect and raise (our) heads (in joyful expectation) because (our) redemption is at hand."

Primer Domingo de Adviento

CONFIANZA VIGILANTE

Nosotros, la Iglesia, entramos al Adviento y al Año Nuevo litúrgico con una llamada a la confianza vigilante. En su origen, nuestras lecturas estaban destinadas para comunidades que sufrían de grandes pérdidas y confusión. Jeremías habla con la confianza de que Dios cumplirá las promesas antiguas a Israel, incluso en tiempos de invasión extranjera. Pablo habla de cómo Dios guía a la Iglesia hacia la santidad, mientras que la comunidad anhela la venida de Jesús. En el pasaje del Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús habla de señales poderosas y de una gran confusión que se avecinan, pero enfatiza que podemos ver hacia delante sabiendo que Dios no trae motivos para la desesperación, sino para la esperanza. Celebramos el Adviento para recordarnos de la fidelidad de Dios. Debemos de estar atentos para ver cómo Dios despierta a nuestro mundo. Dios agita tanto nuestro orgullo como nuestro exceso de confianza, y nos trae sanación y justicia. Nos preparamos para dar la bienvenida a Jesús, seguros de que Dios cumple todas sus promesas divinas.

Primer Domingo de Adviento

Hoy, ya sea por la noche, por la mañana o al mediodía, en muchas comunidades de diferentes iglesias de todo el mundo, la primera vela encendida en cada coron de Adviento anuncia silenciosa pero bellamente el comienzo de un Nuevo Año litúrgico. Este nuevo comienzo presenta una oportunidad llena de gracia para que nos decidamos a vivir no simplemente según el calendario secular de nuestra sociedad comercializada, sino según el espíritu de la liturgia. No hay nada malo – de hecho, puede haber algo muy sagrado– en planificar la celebración del sorprendente regalo del Hijo de Dios sorprendiendo a nuestros seres queridos con regalos bien pensados en Navidad. Pero es muy importante, en medio de las prisas de los preparativos navideños, tomarse el tiempo y hacer el esfuerzo de apreciar los crepúsculos tempranos del Adviento y los amaneceres más tardíos, inundados de púrpuras, azules profundos e incluso los colores rosas oscuros que asociamos con el Adviento. Así dejamos que el propio “Adviento” de la naturaleza nos haga reflexionar sobre el “Adviento” que Jeremías vio venir.

IMÁGENES DEL FIN DE LOS TIEMPOS

Con qué fuerza las Escrituras de hoy nos desafían a prestar atención a la naturaleza inquietante de la irrupción definitiva del Reino. La llamada resuena en la profecía de Jeremías: “En aquellos días, en aquel tiempo” y en la carta de Pablo: “en la venida de nuestro Señor Jesús con todos sus santos. Amén”. El tema se intensifica con aumento en Lucas: “habrá señales en el sol, la luna y las estrellas, y en la tierra . . . consternación y perplejidad”. La gente estará muerta de miedo –literalmente– “en previsión de lo que vendrá sobre el mundo”, ya que “rugirán los mares y las olas” y “las potencias del reino serán sacudidas”. Y todo esto será el preludio de que “el Hijo del hombre vendrá en una nube con poder y gran gloria”. Ante este final “asombroso” (es decir, lleno de estupefacción), Jesús advierte a sus discípulos que se cuiden de dos extremos igualmente debilitantes, que parecen ser marcas registradas de nuestra cultura contemporánea: la diversion mortífera, por un lado, y la ansiedad frenética, por otro.

PREPARACIÓN PARA EL FIN DE LOS TIEMPOS

A la luz de estas predicciones del aterrador final de los tiempos, Jesús nos aconseja adoptar su triple “Programa de preparación para el final: (1) “¡Cuidado!”, es decir, ser conscientes de lo que realmente importa, las verdaderas prioridades de la vida. (2) “Velen en todo momento”, es decir, estén atentos a la venida de Cristo no sólo al final, sino mientras tanto, en la familia y en el prójimo, en el amigo y en el extranjero. (3) Sobre todo, “reza”. La oración, la comunión con Dios, nos ayudará a recordar que, para los discípulos fieles, el Fin de este mundo –o de nuestras propias vidas, lo que ocurra primero– será El Inicio de una alegría que nadie podrá quitarnos, la plenitud de la vida que nunca terminará. Qué bonito sería que la renovación de este Adviento nos preparara para esperar el momento de la venida de Jesús –en su gloria o en nuestra muerte– no como un desastre cataclismo, sino como un motivo por el que “estar erguidos y levantando (nuestras) cabezas (en alegre expectación) porque (nuestra) redención está cerca”.
