Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE GOOD NEWS

Today's readings begin with a few verses from the book of Job. First, Job complains that his nights drag on endlessly. Then, worse yet, "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; / they come to an end without hope" (Job 7:6). Not exactly encouraging, these lamentations, not when taken alone.

Most of us have been there, though, and the antidote is the "good news" that Paul found so compelling that "an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it!" (1 Corinthians 9:16). Paul felt driven to announce the gospel to as many people as possible, "to save at least some" (9:22).

This good news is the mystery of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, who lifted Simon Peter's mother-in-law from her sickbed with a mere touch of his hand. "The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons" (Mark 1:33–34)). Our woes and demons are as real as Job's, and Jesus is our savior.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Job finds life on earth to be drudgery; he is filled with restlessness (Job 7:1-4, 6-7).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted (Psalm 147).

Second Reading — Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel. I have become all things to all, to save at least some (1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23).

Gospel — Jesus cured many who were sick with various diseases (Mark 1:29-39).

Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

LAS BUENAS NOTICIAS

Las lecturas de hoy comienzan con unos versos del libro de Job. En primer lugar, Job se queja de que sus noches se alargan indefinidamente. Y luego, aún peor, "Mis días corren más aprisa que una lanzadera y se consumen sin esperanza" (Job 7:6). No son precisamente alentadoras estas lamentaciones, no cuando se examinan por separado.

La mayoría de nosotros ha estado allí, sin embargo, y el antídoto es la "buena noticia" que Pablo encontró tan convincente que sentía que predicarla "era su obligación. ¡Ay de mí, si no anuncio el Evangelio!" (1 Corintios 9:16). Pablo se sentía impulsado a anunciar el Evangelio a tantos como fuera posible, "para ganarlos a todos" (9:22).

Esta buena noticia era que el misterio de la vida, muerte y Resurrección de Jesucristo, que levantó a la suegra de Simón Pedro de su lecho de enferma con un simple toque de su mano. "Todo el pueblo se apiñó junto a la puerta. Curó a muchos enfermos de diversos males y expulsó a muchos demonios" (Marcos 1:33-34). Nuestros males y demonios son tan reales como los de Job, y Jesús es nuestro salvador.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Job declara que la vida en la tierra es monótona, miserable y triste (Job 7:1-4, 6-7).

Salmo — Alaben al Señor, que sana los corazones quebrantados (Salmo 147 [146]).

Segunda lectura — Pablo dice que no tienen otra alternativa sino la de predicar el Evangelio (1 Corintios 9:16-19, 22-23).

Evangelio — Despues de sanar a muchos enfermos y de expulsar a los demonios, Jesús predica la Buena Nueva (Marcos 1:29-39).

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today summon the Church to embrace its calling, to join in God's healing of the world. As we hear of Job's anguish, in which all hope and purpose have disappeared, we are reminded of the depth of suffering in the world around us, and perhaps also within our own hearts. We hear of Jesus bringing healing and hope to Simon's mother-in-law and to the community around Capernaum. And we hear of Paul's commitment to "become all things to all", that is, to walk alongside all kinds of people, offering good news of the love of God. We need to be a people who do not hide from broken hearts, including our own. We are to share in the suffering of our world, but also to live as those who can tell the world of a God who brings hope. At our best, we the Church embody God's great desire to heal the brokenhearted.

A TIME TO LAMENT

The poignant description of human suffering in our reading from the book of Job echoes the cries we have heard throughout the world with the coming of the coronavirus. We grieve many losses: of life and health, of jobs and security, of freedom to be with those we love. We are reminded that many of the psalms are prayers lamenting that the world is often not what it ought to be. In these coronavirus times, we the Church are first called to prayerfully lament: to weep with those who are weeping and to ache for a better world. Our prayer can remind us that, as Paul described in Romans 8, all creation is groaning, and the Holy Spirit is groaning in wordless, shared suffering.

We also live in God's promise to transform our tears into joy. God is eager to bring healing to the world, and we are God's instruments in doing so. We bring God's gifts of creativity, resourcefulness, and perseverance to the task. Our prayerful lamentation reminds us of the urgency of God's work through us.

FREED TO SERVE

The first chapter of Mark's Gospel is very fast-paced, as Jesus begins his ministry on the move. The first scene in today's passage happens so quickly that it's easy to miss: Jesus heals Simon's mother-in-law, and she promptly begins to serve Jesus and the disciples. This woman is never named, and only noted by her relationship with Simon. But she is the first person in Mark, once healed by Jesus, to clearly respond as a disciple. Her healing frees her to serve Jesus and others, and sparks the healing of many others.

Throughout the Gospels, Jesus' healings restore health, dignity, and a place in the community. They are also a summons to service. Mark's brief story highlights that God is always raising up persons and communities, healed of illness or sin or sadness, to join in God's healing work for others.

Bishop Barber's Statement of Support For California Catholic Conference COVID-19 Vaccine Stance

"The Catholic Church endorses the use of the COVID vaccines. I endorse the use of these vaccines. The National Catholic Bioethics Center, the bishops on the USCCB Pro-Life Committee and Doctrine committee (of which I am a member) have studied the issue and found this medicine morally acceptable. There are no cells in the vaccines that are derived from aborted human beings. I believe these vaccines are a gift from God, and appreciate the work scientists have done in such a short time to make them available."

- Bishop Michael C. Barber, SJ

COVID-19 Vaccination

A safe, effective, no-cost COVID-19 vaccine will be available to everyone in California according to Contra Costa County Health Services. If you are a healthcare worker or are 65 years of age or older and would like to make a vaccination appointment visit www.coronavirus.cchealth.org/vaccine and complete the Vaccine Appointment-Request Form. Eligible residents who have difficulty using the form or have no internet access can request an appointment by calling 1-833-829-2626.

A COVID-19 vaccine is one of the most important tools to end the COVID-19 pandemic. The vaccine paired with other daily health habits, such as wearing face coverings and social distancing, will slow the spread of COVID-19 so businesses and schools can fully reopen and we can return to a more normal way of life.

Who is Fr. Mac Lingo?

My name is Fr. Mac Lingo. I am a convert to the faith. No one in my family is religious or even believes in God, and I grew up that way myself. I experienced a profound conversion after living in many years of darkness and was baptized a Catholic at the Easter vigil of 2012. A few years later I felt God calling me again, this time to the priesthood. I didn't like this idea at first, but after prayer, discernment, and a lot of thought God made it very clear to me and I went to seminary for the Diocese of Oakland. I studied for one year at St. Patrick's Seminary in Menlo Park, and then Bishop Barber decided to send me to St. John's Seminary in Boston for the remaining three years of my studies. I spent one year as a deacon at St. Louis Bertrand in Oakland (with your former pastor, Fr. Olman), and after my priestly ordination in September I was at St. Leander for five months before coming here. I'm looking forward getting to know you all and serving the community here in Oakley. Please pray for me!

FEAST OF FAITH

The Gloria (1)

The Gloria, or Glory to God, follows the penitential rite. Both are acts of praise. In the penitential rite, we sing of the mercy of Christ. In the Gloria we praise God's saving action in the universe.

The Gloria is a relatively late addition to the Mass. It first appeared in the Roman liturgy in the sixth century, and then it was sung only by the pope—and only on Christmas! With time, the hymn came to be sung by bishops on major feasts, and then by priests; finally, it became the song of the entire assembly. With the advent of more elaborate musical settings, the people gradually stopped singing the Gloria, until this song of the people became the exclusive domain of the priest and the choir. But the liturgical reforms have restored it to its place as primarily the song of the assembly.

The language of the Gloria echoes the New Testament canticles. It may be begun by the priest, the cantor, and the entire assembly in varied combinations. The Gloria is sometimes called the "greater doxology," and in some ways it is like an extended, ecstatic version of the familiar doxology ("Glory be to the Father") prayed in the Divine Office and the rosary.

Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

UN TIEMPO PARA LAMENTAR

La conmovedora descripción del sufrimiento humano de la lectura del libro de Job hace eco de los gritos que tenemos escuchando del mundo desde la llegada del coronavirus. Lamentamos muchas perdidas: de vida y salud, de trabajo y seguridad, de libertad de estar con las personas que amamos. Se nos recuerda que muchos de los salmos son oraciones que lamentan que el mundo con frecuencia no es lo que debería de ser. En estos tiempos del coronavirus, nosotros, la Iglesia, primero estamos llamados devotamente a lamentarnos, a llorar con los que lloran y a dolernos por un mundo mejor. Nuestra oración puede recordarnos que, como Pablo describe en Romanos 8, toda la creación está gimiendo y el Espíritu Santo está gimiendo un sufrimiento compartido sin palabras.

También vivimos en la promesa de Dios de transformar nuestras lágrimas en alegría. Dios está dispuesto a traer la sanación al mundo, y nosotros somos los instrumentos de Dios para hacerlo. Para esta tarea traemos de Dios los dones de la creatividad, la iniciativa y la perseverancia. Que nuestro lamento nos recuerde la urgencia del trabajo de Dios a través de nosotros.

LIBERTAD DE SERVIR

El primer capítulo del Evangelio de Marcos avanza rápido, así como Jesús inicia su ministerio avanzando. La primera escena del pasaje de hoy sucede tan rápido que es fácil perderse: Jesús cura a la suegra de Simón y tan pronto ella está sana empieza a servirles a Jesús y a sus discípulos. El Evangelio no menciona el nombre de ella sino solamente que era la suegra de Simón. Pero ella es la primera persona, una mujer, en el Evangelio de Marcos, que una vez curada por Jesús, responde explícitamente como discípula. Al estar curada está liberada para servir a Jesús y a los demás, provocando una curación en muchos otros.

A lo largo de los evangelios, las curaciones de Jesús restauran la salud, la dignidad y un lugar en la comunidad. También son una llamada al servicio. La breve historia de Marcos destaca que Dios siempre está levantado a las personas y a las comunidades, sanadas de enfermedades, del pecado o de la tristeza, para que se unan al trabajo de sanación de Dios para los demás.

¿Quién es el Padre Mac Lingo?

Yo soy Pr. Mac Lingo. Yo soy un converso a la fe. Nadie en mi familia practica un religion ni cree en Dios, y así creci yo también. Me experimenté un gran conversion despues de pasar por muchos años de oscuridad y fui bautizado en la vigilia pascual de 2012. Unos pocos años despues me senti que Dios me estaba llamando otra vez, ahora al sacerdocio. No me gusto la idea al principio, pero despues de mucha oración y discernimiento Dios dejó muy claro que fue su voluntad, y entre en el seminario para nuestra diócesis. Estudié un año en el seminario de San Patricio en Menlo Park, y despues Bishop Barber decidió mandarme al seminario de San Juan en Boston durante los tres años restantes de mis estudios. Esuve un año como diacono en la parroquia de San Luis Beltrán en Oakland (con Pr. Olmán), y despues de mi ordenación sacerdotal en septiembre estuvé en San Leandro antes de vine aquí. Estoy emocionado estar aquí en Oakley con ustedes, por favor, reza por mí!

FIESTA DE LA FE

Ponerse de rodillas en la liturgia

Siempre que hacemos uso de las palabras en un contexto de oración, sea personal o comunitaria, nuestro cuerpo les acompaña con alguna acción determinada. Mucho antes de que nos demos cuenta, el cuerpo ya revela nuestra oración misma. El arrodillarse tiene como connotación el reconocimiento de la grandeza divina y de la pequeñez humana; cabe mencionar que nuestra pequeñez no está orientada a la falta de valor, como si no valiésemos nada, sino más bien, a reconocer la grandeza humana que nos viene de Dios, pues somos coronados de gloria y dignidad (Salmo 8). Asimismo, esta postura indica adoración a Dios, al misterio que es, no porque no podamos entenderlo, sino porque por más que lo entendemos, no agotamos su plenitud. Por otra parte, hay que reconocer que esta postura se adopta al pedir perdón, al hacer una súplica o agradecer un favor recibido. En un contexto hispano, se reconoce el cariño que hay por esta postura, sobre todo en el momento de la consagración, no obstante, también recuerda el sufrimiento al que nuestros pueblos han sido sometidos. La liturgia nos presenta una oportunidad para reivindicarnos ante la presencia de Dios, ante Dios mismo hecho pan, como lo han hecho miles de miembros de la Adoración Nocturna.
