Third Sunday of Lent

HOLY GROUND

Moses met God in a most astounding way in the bush that was burning but not consumed by fire. Moses clearly had a powerful encounter with the Lord. He even felt bold enough to ask God's name, something unheard of among his people at the time—God's name was unspeakable. Moses stood on holy ground. Do we not also stand on holy ground? As people who are created in God's image and drawn to Christ through the waters of Baptism, we have been filled with God's grace and goodness. The ground of our lives is holy. Lent is a time when we are called to open our minds and hearts to Christ, rely on God's patient mercy, and to grow as God's holy people.

Third Sunday of Lent

Elizabeth Barret Browning wrote, "Earth's crammed with heaven, And every common bush afire with God, But only he who sees, takes off his shoes; The rest sit round it and pluck blackberries." We are challenged today to experience the mystery of God with the image of Moses and the burning bush--a God who answers all questions in a simple, bold manner. Like an exasperated parent telling a child "Because I said so," God tells Moses "I am who I am," and "tell the Israelites I AM sent me to you." God may as well have said, "Save all your questions, and trust in me. Quit being so stubborn." The passage from First Corinthians reminds us what happened when the Israelites did not listen to God's message. They grumbled and complained because manna from heaven was not enough! Lastly, an annoyed Jesus calls on his listeners to repent and uses a difficult parable to stress transformation.

A CONTINUOUS LENT

In the Rule of Saint Benedict, the monks are told that their lives should be a "continuous Lent." At first, this may sound like a negative, difficult thing, or entirely depressing. Rather, it is simply a call to be open and continue growing. In fact, one of the vows that Benedictines profess is Conversatio Morum, that is, "conversion of life." In a nutshell, that is what Jesus is saying this week. We are being called to change our lives. Some people came to Jesus with gossip and a gruesome story about Pilate; Jesus challenged them with a couple of pointed questions, and then related the parable of the fig tree. To put it in context, usually figs blossom within two years, and then can be harvested twice a year. When a tree has been barren three years, it might be best just to remove it, but this is not the approach that Jesus suggested. Rather, the gardener in the parable chose to nurture the tree, fertilizing it with dung. He was not willing to give up on it.

GROWTH

There are times when we may feel our lives are covered in dung, and we lie dormant through a plethora of difficult and painful moments. But Jesus is calling us to use this time, to draw strength from it, to use the dung in our lives as fertilizer, to begin a slow and steady transformation to a new and better place, until we too can bear fruit. Growth is always a process, and we have to start somewhere. While there is always a call to repentance and conversion, we are blessed with a God who is loving enough and patient enough to wait for us to come to our senses, however long that may take. This Lent we are being called to life. We are called to repent. We are called to be nurtured and fertilized and take the time and effort to grow. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

2022 BISHOP'S MINISTRIES APPEAL

Dear Faithful of the Diocese of Oakland,

It is time once again to ask for your help in carrying out our mission of service in the

annual Bishop's Ministries Appeal helps with the expenses of vital ministries and programs throughout the Diocese. With your support, we are making a difference, even in these challenging times.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is Feed my Lambs, Feed My Sheep, which was Jesus's command to baptized Christians, to serve and care for his flock, helping more people to come to know God's love and mercy. We cannot complete this work God has given us without your support.

Again this year, I ask you to consider making a special commitment – a one-time gift or a pledge payable over a period of time – to help us minister to the needs of those in our Diocese. May I count on your sacrificial support once again?

With gratitude for your love and support of Christ and his Church,

Most Reverend Michael C. Barber, S.J. Bishop of Oakland .

Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma

SUELO SAGRADO

Moisés se encontró con Dios de la manera más asombrosa en una zarza que ardía pero que el fuego no la consumía. Sin lugar a duda, Moisés tuvo un impactante encuentro con el Señor. Incluso se sintió lo suficientemente valiente para preguntarle a Dios por su nombre, algo inaudito entre su pueblo en ese tiempo, no se pronunciaba el nombre de Dios. Moisés estaba en suelo sagrado. ¿Acaso nosotros no estamos también parados sobre suelo sagrado? Como personas que somos creadas a imagen de Dios y atraídas por Cristo a través de las aguas del bautismo, somos llenados con la gracia y bondad de Dios. El suelo de nuestras vidas es sagrado. La Cuaresma es un tiempo en el que somos llamados a abrir nuestras mentes y corazones a Cristo, a confiar en la misericordia paciente de Dios y a crecer como pueblo santo de Dios. Copyright © J. S. Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma

Elizabeth Barret Browning escribió: "La tierra está repleta de cielo, y todos los arbustos comunes arden con Dios, pero sólo el que ve, se quita los zapatos; el resto se sienta alrededor y arranca moras". Hoy se nos desafía a experimentar el misterio de Dios con la imagen de Moisés y la zarza ardiente: un Dios que responde a todas las preguntas de forma sencilla y audaz. Como un padre exasperado que le dice a su hijo "Porque yo lo digo", Dios le dice a Moisés "Yo soy el que soy" y "dile a los israelitas que YO SOY me ha enviado a ti". Dios bien podría haber dicho: "Ahórrate todas tus preguntas y confía en mí. Deja de ser tan terco". El pasaje de la primera carta a los Corintios nos recuerda lo que sucedió cuando los israelitas no escucharon el mensaje de Dios. Refunfuñaron y se quejaron porque el maná del cielo no era suficiente. Por último, un Jesús molesto llama a sus oyentes a que se arrepientan y utiliza una parábola difícil para enfatizar la transformación.

UNA CUARESMA CONTINUA

En la regla de san Benito, se dice a los monjes que su vida deber ser una "Cuaresma continua". Al principio, esto puede sonar como algo negativo, difícil o totalmente deprimente. Más bien, es simplemente una llamada a estar abiertos y seguir creciendo. De hecho, uno de los votos que profesan los benedictinos es la Conversatio Morum, es decir, la "conversión de la vida". En pocas palabras, eso es lo que Jesús está diciendo esta semana. Estamos llamados a cambiar nuestras vidas. Algunas personas se acercaron a Jesús con chismes y una historia espantosa sobre Pilato; Jesús los desafió con un par de preguntas punzantes, y luego relató la parábola de la higuera. Para ponerlo en contexto, normalmente los higos florecen en dos años, y luego se pueden cosechar dos veces al año. Cuando un árbol lleva tres años estéril, lo mejor sería eliminarlo, pero este no es el enfoque que sugirió Jesús. En cambio, el jardinero de la parábola optó por nutrir el árbol, fertilizándolo con estiércol. No estaba dispuesto a abandonarlo.

CRECIMIENTO

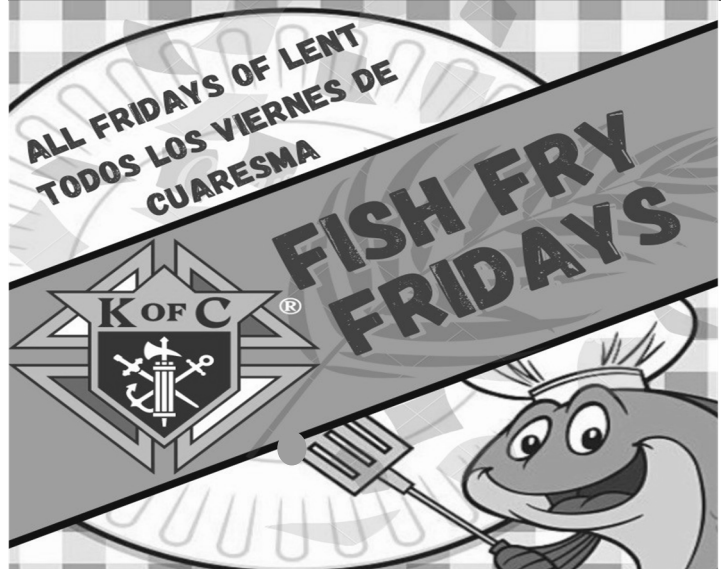

Hay momentos en los que podemos sentir que nuestras vidas están cubiertas de estiércol, y nos quedamos dormidos en una plétora de momentos difíciles y dolorosos. Pero Jesús nos llama a utilizar este tiempo, a sacar fuerzas de él, a utilizar el estiércol de nuestras vidas como abono, a comenzar una transformación lenta y constante hacia un lugar nuevo y mejor, hasta que nosotros también podamos dar fruto. El crecimiento es siempre un proceso, y tenemos que empezar por algún sitio. Aunque siempre hay una llamada al arrepentimiento y a la conversión, hemos sido
