Fifth Sunday of Easter

BEARING FRUIT

Few of us, even when we meditate on the image of the vine and branches, stop to really think about how God “prunes” us. For some there is the danger of thinking that we are already producing fruit for the kingdom, in deed and truth as John says, perhaps raising a family, being active in our parish, and so on. But even those branches which are bearing fruit, the Gospel tells us, can be pruned to produce still more. Today Saul, freshly “pruned” by his conversion, arrives in Jerusalem and meets resistance. Since he had been persecuting Christians, this was only natural. But even after he is accepted and begins to bear fruit, he meets further adversity, and his letters are filled with many accounts of how his trials “pruned” him to produce greater fruit for the kingdom. Like him, as long as we remain in Christ we will continue to bear fruit and, when the will of the Father determines it is time to prune us, the strength of the true vine must enable us to endure it.

DEN FRUTOS

Pocos de nosotros, incluso cuando meditamos sobre la imagen de la vid y los sarmientos, nos detenemos a pensar realmente acerca de cómo Dios nos “poda”. Para algunos, existe el peligro de pensar que ya estamos produciendo frutos para el reino, de verdad y con hechos como dice Juan, tal vez criando una familia, siendo activos en nuestra parroquia y así. Pero incluso aquellas ramas que están dando sus frutos, nos dice el Evangelio, se pueden podar para producir aún más. Hoy Saulo, recién “podado” por su conversión, llega a Jerusalén y encuentra resistencia. Ya que había estado persiguiendo a los cristianos, esto era natural. Pero incluso después de que lo aceptan y comienza a dar frutos, se encuentra con más adversidad, y sus cartas están llenas de muchos relatos de cómo sus pruebas eran “pudas” para que produjera más frutos para el Reino. Al igual que él, siempre y cuando permanezcamos en Cristo, vamos a seguir dando frutos y, cuando la voluntad del Padre, determine que es hora de que nos pade, la fuerza de la vid verdadera deberá permitirnos soportarlo.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Bernabé explica a los discípulos en Jerusalén la conversión de Pablo (Hechos 9:26-31).

Salmo — Bendito sea el Señor. Aleluya (Salmo 22 [21]).

Segunda lectura — Dios nos ordena que creamos en el nombre de Jesucristo y que nos amemos como él nos ama (1 Juan 3:18-24).

Evangelio — Los que viven en Jesús y Jesús vive en ellos producen mucho fruto (Juan 15:1-8).

*May 2, 2021
Fifth Sunday of Easter*

In today's Gospel, Jesus likens our relationship with him to a plant with many branches. We, the branches, are called to remain so close to Jesus that we bear fruit, loving one another as Christ loves us. Saul bore the fruit of his faith through powerful witness that drew others to Christ. And the branches that grew into the early Church were extraordinarily fruitful. What is the fruit of your faith in Jesus Christ?

VINES, BRANCHES, AND FRUIT

Few activities are as disappointing as cultivating garden plants, watering them, and ensuring that they receive sunlight and nutrients, only to receive one or two vegetables or flowers to show for all the effort. Jesus uses the metaphor of the vine and branches to describe how closely we are called to remain with him—so close that we bear the fruit of his life and love in the way we live. When we do this, Jesus says, we give glory to God the Father, which Jesus did perfectly through his life, passion, death, and resurrection. Like plants that rely on the sun and nutrients from the soil, we rely on the Lord Jesus through whom we can do all for which we are called. Without the Lord, we can do nothing.

LEARN FROM THE FIRST ONES

The story of the early Church that we hear from the Acts of the Apostles during the Easter season is instructive and inspiring. We learn how the community grew in their understanding of what it means to remain close to Jesus in the most challenging of situations. They lived in word and deed as Christ had taught and bore the fruit of their faith in their daily decisions, in small ways and in dramatic moments. Faced with Saul who had persecuted Christians and who presented himself as a disciple, Barnabas risked believing Saul's testimony. Through Barnabas, the community accepted Saul, with increasing numbers of people being led to belief in Christ as a result. We too are called to live in word and deed, taking to heart Christ's command to love one another, even when it is challenging to do so. We may find inspiration in the way the early believers drew consolation from the Holy Spirit, finding wisdom and strength to keep the commandments and do what pleases God.

Sunday Mass Dispensation Continues

Bishop Barber has dispensed the obligation to attend Sunday and Holy Day Masses until further notice. Although the faithful are dispensed from their obligation to attend Mass, they are encouraged to spend time in prayer on Sunday (such as following a Live Stream Mass or participating in a spiritual or corporal act of mercy).

Bishop's Appeal: "Rebuild My Church"

This year's Bishop's Appeal has started. Our goal at St. Anthony remains at $21,100. This year has been challenging for so many. Now, more than ever, the good work of the Church is needed in our community. From Faith Formation for students and adults, to important ministry works, to supporting our schools and parishes, our Diocese is making a difference in people's lives every single day — thanks to the prayers and contributions of our catholic community. Make your pledge or donation at www.oakdiocese.org/bishops-appeal-donation-page

Giving Made Simple

During this time when our public Mass is suspended, please continue to offer your support to St. Anthony with your monetary gifts. These gifts allows us to pay our bills. Please continue giving to the Sunday collection basket by using GIVE+; the online way of giving. Visit the St. Anthony website and click on the pull down "About" and click "Online Giving". Or you may drop your Sunday envelope in the U.S. Mailbox in the front by the Church entrance. You decide how to give, but please continue to give.

Thank You, Thank You!

Thank you so much for the amazing welcome parade drive-through! I truly felt the love and the spirit of the community of St. Anthony, you guys are amazing and full of love for Jesus Christ, and I am so glad that I get to be here and share it with you. It took me an hour just to open all the cards you guys gave me! Thank you for your witness of faith and your incredible generosity.

Much love,
Fr. Mac

Catholic Bishops Will Continue to Follow the Common Good on Decisions Regarding Worship

On April 13, 2021, the Executive Committee of the California Catholic Conference has released the following statement:

Sacramento, CA – “In light of the U.S. Supreme Court’s recent rulings striking down unreasonable restrictions on indoor public worship and the issuance of new guidelines by Governor Newsom removing legal mandates restricting worship, the Catholic Bishops of California remain committed to the complete resumption of indoor worship in a responsible and safe manner. DIOCESE COVID-19 VACCINATION POLICY

We are living our Catholic faith in the midst of one of the greatest global health crises in recent times. Therefore, the Diocese of Oakland strongly recommends all clergy, employees and volunteers to get COVID-19 vaccinations as soon as possible. Beyond protecting their own health and safety, Catholics also have an obligation to protect their family, friends, co-workers and community by vaccinating as soon as feasible. One should consult with their doctor concerning any personal health concerns.

Who Are the Columbiettes?

The Columbiettes is an organization of over 13,666 Catholic women, 18 years of age or older, who are affiliated with the Knights of Columbus. As a charitable, not-for-profit organization they support many different charities and are involved in community activities as well as working collectively with our Brother Knights to promote faith and unity. They are an organization of woman from all backgrounds united by our Catholic faith, the Love of our family, our Love of Country and our commitment to helping others. To become a member of the Columbiettes call Libby Davis at (925) 848-8925.

Quinto Domingo de Pascua

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús compara nuestra relación con él usando como ejemplo una planta con muchas ramas. Nosotros seríamos las ramas, y estamos llamados a permanecer tan cerca de Jesús que demos fruto, amándonos unos a otros como Cristo nos ama. Saulo dio el fruto de su fe mediante un testimonio impactante que atrajo a otros a Cristo. Y las ramas que crecieron en la Iglesia primitiva fueron extraordinariamente fructíferas. ¿Cuál es el fruto de tu fe en Jesucristo?

VID, SARMIENTOS Y FRUTOS

Pocas actividades son tan decepcionantes como cultivar las plantas u hortalizas del jardín, regarlas y asegurarse de que reciban la luz del sol y los nutrientes, sólo para cosechar uno o dos vegetales, hortalizas o flores que demuestren todo el esfuerzo. Jesús usa la metáfora de la vid y los sarmientos para describir la proximidad con la que estamos llamados a permanecer junto a él, de forma que demos el fruto de su vida y amor en nuestra forma de vivir. Dice Jesús que cuando hacemos esto, damos gloria a Dios Padre, lo que Jesús hizo perfectamente a través de su vida, pasión, muerte y resurrección. Como las plantas que dependen del sol y de los nutrientes de la tierra, nosotros nos apoyamos en Jesús, el Señor, a través del él podemos hacer todo aquello para lo que estamos llamados. Sin el Señor, no podemos hacer nada.

APRENDER DE LOS PRIMEROS

La historia de la Iglesia primitiva que escuchamos en los Hechos de los Apóstoles durante el tiempo de Pascua es educativo e inspirador. Aprendemos cómo la comunidad creció en su comprensión de lo que significa permanecer cerca de Jesús en las situaciones más difíciles. Ellos vivieron de palabra y de obra como Cristo había enseñado y dieron el fruto de su fe en sus decisiones cotidianas, en pequeños detalles y en momentos dramáticos. Frente a Saulo, que había perseguido a los cristianos y que se presentaba así mismo como discípulo, Bernabé se arriesgó a creer en el testimonio de Saulo. A través de Bernabé, la comunidad aceptó a Saulo y, como resultado, un número cada vez mayor de personas empezaron a creer en Cristo. Nosotros también estamos llamados a vivir de palabra y obra, tomando a pecho el mandamiento de Cristo de amarnos los unos a los otros, incluso cuando sea difícil hacerlo. Podemos inspirarnos en la forma en que los primeros creyentes se consolaron con el Espíritu Santo, encontrando sabiduría y fuerza para cumplir los mandamientos y hacer lo que de agrada a Dios.
