LORD, SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

In today's responsorial psalm the Church sings out: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." All three readings describe how God has answered that prayer already.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles and in the Gospel passage from John, we read of astonishing events that called cowering disciples to step out of hiding and proclaim news that would condemn them and change the world forever! In the second reading Paul's words reach out into the future to us: "we were all given to drink of one Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:13).

It is our task to truly pray today's psalm response. Let us together beg the Holy Spirit to renew the earth by renewing the Church, sending many more men and women to serve in its various ministries.

Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in different tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Galatians 5:16-25.

Gospel — As the Father has sent me, so I send you: Receive the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23) or John 15:26-27; 16:12-15.

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

As followers of Jesus, we are called to direct our minds and hearts to Christ's love, turning away from all that is not of God in order to be more Christ-like in our daily lives. The more we invite the Holy Spirit to draw us close to God's heart, the more readily we will avoid sin and choose life, faith, and love. In the letter to the Galatians, we hear a list of things that those who live in the Spirit are to avoid. Things like immorality, hatred, jealousy, and selfishness. At first glance, we might think to ourselves, "of course I want to avoid those things," and yet, if we are honest with ourselves, we likely recognize some of those patterns in our lives. Upon further reflection, however, we also see that these negative behaviors pose temporary pleasure while the fruits of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control—lead to a life of deep and lasting fulfillment.

NOTHING WILL STAND IN THE WAY

The Jewish people who had gathered in Jerusalem for the festival of Pentecost came from every corner of the world. They spoke many languages and yet were drawn to hear the message of Christ from the disciples who had just experienced the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. They were astonished by what they heard—not only the message, but the way in which it was conveyed, in their own language, and by the messengers, people whom they would have considered ordinary and unremarkable, rather than the acknowledged religious leaders of their time. We, too, are called to share the love and mercy of Christ through word and action, even when we feel small and insignificant. We need only to look at the witness and experience of those first disciples and all the saints who have preceded us to know that we are capable of much when we place our lives in God's hands. Nothing can stand in the way of the incredible love of God when we are filled with the power and presence of the Holy Spirit!

Convalidation

This program is designed for those couples who are married civilly and now wish to marry in the Church. Some couples, because of differences in religious background or, a sense of distance from the Church at the time of their marriage, or due to complicating family situations, were married civilly or in some other manner that did not meet the Catholic Church's legal requirements for a valid church marriage. If you need more information about this program call the Parish Office (925) 625-2048 and ask to speak with a priest.

Schedule of Events Horario de Eventos

All Parish events have been suspended, canceled or postponed by Bishop Barber as we are ordered to "Shelter in Place" to curb the spread of the novel coronavirus COVID-19. This Order will continue to be in effect until it is extended, rescinded, superseded, or amended in writing by the Health Officer by Order of the Contra Costa County Public Health Officer.

An Invitation From Deacon Candelario

After nine months of service and ministry in preparation for my priestly Ordination and after 12 years of seminary formation, I was finally ordained to the Priesthood on Saturday, May 22! I want to thank you for all your generosity and prayers for my vocation — prayer is the most essential aspect for any vocation, but most especially for the Priesthood!

I would like to invite you all to join me for my first Mass of thanksgiving for my ordination. I have requested from the Holy See in Rome for a "First Mass Plenary Indulgence" for those that meet the requirements, which are three:

1. Attend the Holy Mass of the newly ordained priest,
2. Receive Holy Communion in the state of grace (which means, if you haven't gone to confession in a while, this would be a great opportunity to do so), AND finally
3. Pray for the intentions of Pope Francis.

Your attendance will be a personal blessing for me. I truly hope to see you all here for this special Mass of Thanksgiving! Many blessings to you all and your families—and thank you once again for your prayers and support.

+May almighty God bless you,
Fr. Candelario Jiménez

A Message From Fr. Rafael

Dear St Anthony community,

“Peace be with you.” Today, the Feast of Pentecost brings us to conclude our Easter celebrations. How quickly our 50 days of Easter have gone. We have witnessed and lived the mystery of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ through Holy Scripture, Holy Tradition and the Magisterium of the Church. By dying on the Cross, Jesus Christ conquered death for us, so that we may have Eternal Salvation. God so loved the world that he sacrificed his only Son so that we might be redeemed from our sins and therefore be able to participate and abide in a life of Grace and his Spirit be what would help us to continue our journey to him, to carry our Cross, to do his will. The celebrations end today but as he has shown the way, we should carry on. Under the circumstances in which we celebrated Easter last year at the beginning of the pandemic, it reminded us how it would have been in the early days of the Church, when the disciples and those Christians who believed in Jesus Christ were hiding for fear of persecution. How unstable everything was for us too; we were told to shelter in place and avoid one another for fear of contracting the novel coronavirus COVID 19. We would see surges of the virus take its toll and then temporarily release us and then surge again and again. Even though, we have lost many of our brothers and sisters to this coronavirus and for whom we pray, but still, we who carry on, have persevered in our faith. We at St. Anthony continued to celebrate Mass, hear confessions, share the Word of God, feeding on the Eucharist, and all of these and more is what has kept us, as Church, united in Jesus Christ. I thank you for your faith, perseverance, testimony, and fidelity to God.

After Jesus’s death and resurrection, the disciples, maybe with doubts and fears and even reservations, went back to their old lives, some were still with minds set on his death. As Luke says “Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here but has risen.” So must we throw off our fears and set our hope and confidence in Jesus Christ. Our journey because of this pandemic is probably still uncertain ahead of us and we must remain vigilant and cautious but as people of the Resurrection, baptized children of God, we should move on, not with fear but with the confidence set in the Spirit of love, the Spirit of life and truth.

After rising from the dead, Jesus came to his disciples and doubters, he said to them “Peace be with you.” In those forty days, Jesus Christ ate with them, walked with them, and spoke with them. He even let them touch him. Then he ascended up into the clouds to sit at the right hand of God. But before his departure, he promised never to leave us, and today we celebrate that moment when the Holy Spirit came down upon them and for us. A Spirit of love that fills our hearts. The Holy Spirit that allows us to remain in him as he remains in us. With that Spirit therefore I invite you, let us carry on.

We live and work in an increasing more secular world, an existence where there is no belief in God. But we who believe in God, we Christians have a mission to bring the Good News and make that love made known to all who do not believe or still doubt. Showing love through our deeds and actions. Let us remember that we are Christians every moment of our lives, not just on Sunday or when we are in church. Let us be the best versions of ourselves all the time. It may be hard, we may fall. But get up, with the strength given by the Sacramental Grace, let us show and proclaim to all that love he has for us.

During these times of uncertainty, I invite you, be thankful for the many blessings that we have. I certainly am thankful for all of you the good people of this community and all the hard work and generosity you bring to benefit St. Anthony as a whole. I am thankful for Fr. Mac Lingo our vicar too, as we share the same thoughts on evangelization and his upbeat energy to do the mission and work. I am humbled and flattered by your love and say, “May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord make his face shine upon you. May the Lord give you peace.”

SEÑOR, ENVÍA TU ESPÍRITU

En el salmo responsorial de hoy la Iglesia canta: “Envía tu Espíritu, Señor y repuebla la faz de la tierra”. Las tres lecturas describen cómo Dios ha respondido ya a esta oración.

En la primera lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles y en el pasaje del Evangelio según San Juan, leemos acerca de acontecimientos asombrosos que impulsaron a los discípulos acobardados a salir de su escondite y proclamar la noticia que los condenaría y cambiaría el mundo para siempre! En la segunda lectura las palabras de Pablo se extienden hacia el futuro, hasta nosotros: “a todos se nos ha dado a beber del mismo Espíritu” (1 Corintios 12:13). Es nuestra tarea rezar verdaderamente el responsorio del Salmo de hoy. Pidamos juntos al Espíritu Santo que renueve la Tierra al renovar la Iglesia con el envío de más hombres y mujeres que presten servicio en los diversos ministerios.

Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El Espíritu Santo desciende sobre los apóstoles (Hechos 2:1-11).

Salmo — Envía, Señor, tu Espíritu, a renovar la tierra. Aleluya (Salmo 104 [103]).

Segunda lectura — Hemos sido bautizados en el mismo Espíritu para formar un solo cuerpo (1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13) o Gálatas 5:16-25.

Evangelio — Jesús se hizo presente a los discípulos y les trajo su paz. Les envío en su misión con poder para perdonar o atar los pecados por el Espíritu Santo (Juan 20:19-23) o Juan 15:26-27; 16:12-15.

Un Mensaje del Padre Rafael

Amada comunidad de San Antonio,

“La paz este con ustedes.” Hoy, Domingo de Pentecostés, se cierra nuestro Tiempo Pascual. Qué rápido han pasado nuestros 50 días de Pascua. Hemos presenciado y vivido el misterio de la Resurrección de Jesucristo a través de la Sagrada Escritura, la Sagrada Tradición y el Magisterio de la Iglesia. Por su muerte en la Cruz, Jesucristo nuestro Señor ha vencido a la muerte para que tengamos la eterna salvación. Dios amó tanto al mundo que sacrificó a su único Hijo para que pudiéramos ser redimidos de nuestros pecados, y así, poder ser partícipes de la vida en su gracia y seguir adelante en nuestra jornada de fe, cargando nuestra Cruz and cumpliendo su Santa voluntad. Las celebraciones de Pascua terminan hoy, pero como él nos enseño, la jornada debe continuar.

Las circunstancias en que celebramos la Pascua del año pasado al comienzo de la pandemia, nos recordó cómo habría sido en los primeros días de la Iglesia, cuando los discípulos y los cristianos que creían en Jesucristo se escondían por miedo a la persecución. Así que fue al comienzo de la pandemia, con lo inestable que era todo, que nos dijeron que nos refugiáramos en nuestros hogares y nos evitáramos unos a otros por temor a contraer el nuevo coronavirus COVID 19. Vimos brotes de este virus surgir fuertemente, luego temporalmente calmarse solo para nuevamente volver a surgir una y otra vez más. Hemos perdido a tantos de nuestros hermanos y hermanas a causa de este coronavirus, y oramos por ellos y sus familias, pero nosotros debemos continuar perseverando en nuestra fe y por eso aquí en San Antonio seguimos escuchando confesiones, celebrando la Misa para escuchar la Palabra de Dios y alimentarnos de su cuerpo y de su sangre en la Eucaristía que nos mantiene fuertes y unidos como una verdadera Iglesia de Dios. Les doy las gracias por su Fe, fidelidad, perseverancia y testimonio en Dios.

Después de la muerte y resurrección de nuestro Señor, los discípulos, aun con dudas, miedos y reservaciones poco a poco volvieron a su vida normal, algunos aun con los ojos puestos en la muerte y no la resurrección, Como dice Lucas, “¿Por qué buscáis entre los muertos al que vive? No está aquí, ha resucitado.” Los invito a deshacernos de nuestros miedos, y fijar nuestra confianza y mantener la esperanza en Jesucristo nuestro Señor. Nuestra jornada con esta pandemia aún no termina, debemos seguir siendo cuidadosos y precavidos, pero como creyentes de la resurrección e hijos de Dios por nuestro bautismo, no podemos pararnos, si no avanzar, no con más miedos si no con toda la confianza en el Espíritu de Dios, Espíritu de vida y de verdad.

Después de resucitar de entre los muertos, Jesús se acercó a sus discípulos y los incrédulos y les dijo “La paz este con ustedes.” En esos cuarenta días, Jesucristo comió con ellos, caminó con ellos y habló con ellos. Dejó que lo tocaran. Luego fue llevado a las nubes para sentarse a la derecha de Dios. Pero antes de su partida, prometió no dejarnos nunca y hoy celebramos esa venida del Espíritu Santo que vino sobre los apóstoles y viene sobre nosotros. Un espíritu de amor que llena nuestros corazones. El Espíritu Santo que nos permite permanecer en él como él permanece en nosotros. Con la gracias de ese Espíritu, los invito, sigamos en la jornada de vida y fe en el Señor.

Vivimos y trabajamos en un mundo cada vez más materialista, en una sociedad que casi no cree en Dios. Pero los que creemos en Dios, nosotros los Cristianos tenemos la misión de llevar la Buena Nueva a nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Amando a través de nuestros hechos y acciones. Recordemos que somos Cristianos en cada momento de nuestras vidas no solo los Domingos o cuando estamos dentro del templo. Nuestro cuerpo físico es el templo de Dios donde vive el Espíritu Santo. Seamos las mejores versiones de nosotros mismos todo el tiempo. Intentémoslo, no es fácil y caeremos. Pero levántate, recibe el Sacramento de la Reconciliación, confiesa los pecados que Dios ya sabe que has cometido. Dios te conoce. Él te creó. Llenense de cosas buenas para que sus obras y acciones sean buenas y agradables a Dios. Y proclamemos a todos el amor que el nos da.

Durante estos tiempos de incertidumbre, le invito, seamos agradecidos con las tantas bendiciones que tenemos y recibimos del Señor. Ciertamente yo estoy agradecido por todos ustedes la gente buena de esta comunidad y por todo el gran trabajo, esfuerzo y generosidad para beneficio de toda nuestra parroquia de San Antonio. Estoy agradecido por la presencia del Fr. Mac Lingo, con quien compartimos los mismos ideales sobre la evangelización y por su entusiasta energía para hacer el trabajo que el Señor nos encomendó. Me siento honrado y conmovido por su amor y fe y les digo: “Que el Señor los bendiga y los guarde. Que el Señor haga resplandecer su rostro sobre ustedes. Que el Señor les dé la paz.”

“La paz este con ustedes.”

Amada Comunidad,
Después de nueve meses de servicio y ministerio en preparación para mi ordenación sacerdotal y después de 12 años de formación en el seminario, finalmente seré ordenado al sacerdocio el 22 de mayo (sábado).

Me gustaría invitarlos a todos a unirse a mí en mi primera Misa de acción de gracias por mi ordenación, aquí en la Parroquia de San Antonio, que se llevará a cabo el miércoles 26 de mayo a las 6:30 pm que será Bilingüe.

He solicitado a la Santa Sede una “Primera Indulgencia Plenaria Misa” para aquellos que cumplan con los siguientes tres requisitos:

(1) Asistir a la Santa Misa del sacerdote recién ordenado, (2) Reciba la Sagrada Comunión en estado de gracia (es decir, si no se ha confesado en por un tiempo, esta sería una gran oportunidad para hacerlo), Y finalmente (3) Ore por las intenciones del Papa Francisco.

¡Realmente espero verlos a todos aquí para esta Misa especial de Acción de Gracias! Muchas bendiciones para todos ustedes y sus familias—y gracias una vez más por sus oraciones y apoyo.

Que bien Dios les bendiga.
