6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. - Mk 1:44-45b

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Recently I had a skin rash, and it was awful. (Please don't tell anyone.) I am embarrassed to admit that I didn't handle it well. Complaining, whining, begging for sympathy, and crying were my responses to the merciless itching and burning. In the aftermath, a silver lining emerged. I feel a new heartfelt sympathy for all those vexed with chronic skin problems. If you've ever had a seemingly unending skin problem, you know how that sympathy flows up from deep inside.

This gut-level compassion is something like what the Gospel describes in Jesus when the sore-covered leper says, "If you will it, you can make me clean." At this, just before the healing, Jesus was "moved with compassion." The Greek word used here is strong and earthy, closer to "his bowels and guts trembled with the deepest emotions of sadness, pity, and love." In Jesus, God heals our infirmities not from a divine distance but by learning what it feels like to be us. He acquires first-hand experience of what it costs us to be afflicted and still be faithful to God. He sympathizes with the burning, itching, and blistering of human existence in the deepest, first-hand way. To discover that is to touch Jesus' heart.

What in your life, right now, is breaking out like diseased skin? What is getting worse the more you try to soothe it? Perhaps only you feel it. Or maybe it's exposed to all. A bad habit, broken relationship, loneliness, fear of failure, self-hatred? Name it, and then find a way to bring it confidently to Jesus who will feel what we are feeling, and thereby heal us.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

Sin and Loneliness

When I was in high school, we read “The Metamorphosis” by Franz Kafka. It’s a depressing little novella about a man who (spoiler alert!) turns into a cockroach and dies of neglect, his family gradually ceasing to recognize the creature he has become.

“Never underestimate how badly human beings need touch,” our teacher told us. “Without each other, we curl up and die.”

Our need for communion with each other is written into our biology — breathing and heart rate of newborns regulates when they lie against the skin of their mothers, and we instinctively reach out to embrace someone who has been wounded. But it is also written into our souls. Consider the early days of the pandemic, and the emotional starvation we all experienced, prevented from gathering in groups to worship, to celebrate and to mourn. And when we did encounter other people, we kept a mutual distance. “I feel like a leper,” we grumbled to our families when we returned home, because we finally understood it: the real tragedy of leprosy is not pain and disfigurement. The real tragedy of leprosy is loneliness.

“If you wish, you can make me clean,” begged the leper as he knelt before Christ (Mark 1:40). He wasn’t begging for deliverance from pain and disfigurement. He was begging for deliverance from isolation.

“If you wish, you can make me clean,” we beg God in confession, not because we are physically withering and dying but because we are so desperate to once again be held in His embrace.

“Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, ‘I do will it. Be made clean.’”
— Mark 1:41

6° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En la actualidad, a pesar del avance de la medicina, existen enfermedades incurables. ¿Cuáles son las enfermedades incurables ahora? ¿De qué padecemos? ¿Quiénes son los leproso actuales? ¿Qué personas son las expulsadas de la ciudad y de la sociedad? En tiempo de Jesús, era la lepra; los enfermos, al adquirir está enfermedad, eran expulsados de la ciudad y no podían acercarse a las personas sanas. Hoy, Jesús sigue haciendo milagros de todo tipo, sigue curando, tocando y aliviando a los necesitados. Acercarse al pobre significa luchar y comprometerse con su persona para que salga de su pobreza y enfermedad. ¿Cómo tocamos y ayudamos a los que sufren en la sociedad actual?

La curación del leproso del Evangelio nos dice que Jesús tocó al leproso sin temor a contagiarse. Su compasión se muestra con el diálogo entre ambos: «Se le acercó un leproso, que se arrodilló ante él y le suplicó: “Si quieres, puedes limpiarme”. Sintiendo compasión, Jesús extendió la mano y lo tocó diciendo: “Quiero, queda limpio”» (Marcos 1, 40-41). Jesús rompe las reglas al tocar el leproso, lo importante en este caso era la empatía, la compasión, el ser uno con el otro. Lo que hizo Jesús le traerá consecuencias fatales, romper la ley no era aceptable. El acercamiento con respeto a los enfermos significa una muestra de amor grande para ellos. Salgamos de nuestra burbuja, busquemos a los que sufren, que, con seguridad, están en la familia y amigos. ¡No seamos indiferentes a su sufrimiento! ©LPi

Pecado y Soledad

Cuando estaba en la escuela preparatoria, leímos “La Metamorfosis” de Franz Kafka. Es una pequeña novela deprimente sobre un hombre que (¡alerta de spoiler!) se convierte en una cucaracha y muere por abandono, mientras su familia deja gradualmente de reconocer la criatura en la que se ha convertido.

“Nunca subestimes lo mucho que los seres humanos necesitan el tacto,” nos dijo nuestra maestra. “El uno sin el otro, nos acurrucamos y morimos.”

Nuestra necesidad de comunión de los unos con los otros está escrita en nuestra biología: la respiración y el ritmo cardíaco de los recién nacidos se regulan cuando se acuestan contra la piel de sus madres, e instintivamente extendemos la mano para abrazar a alguien que ha sido herido. Pero también está escrito en nuestras almas. Consideremos los primeros días de la pandemia y la hambruna emocional que todos experimentamos al no poder reunirnos en grupos para adorar, celebrar y llorar. Y cuando nos encontrábamos con otras personas, manteníamos una distancia mutua. “Me siento como un leproso,” nos quejábamos con nuestras familias cuando regresábamos a casa, porque finalmente lo entendimos: la verdadera tragedia de la lepra no es el dolor y la desfiguración. La verdadera tragedia de la lepra es la soledad.

“Si quieres, puedes limpiarme,” suplicó el leproso mientras se arrodillaba ante Cristo (Marcos 1:40). No estaba rogando por liberación del dolor y la desfiguración. Estaba rogando por ser liberado del aislamiento.

“Si quieres, puedes limpiarme,” le rogamos a Dios en confesión, no porque nos estemos marchitando y muriendo físicamente, sino porque estamos desesperados por ser nuevamente sostenidos en Sus brazos.

Jesús se compadeció de él, y extendiendo la mano, lo tocó y le dijo: “¡Si quiero: Sana!” - Marcos 1:41
