Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon. In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem. Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing. The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!" Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rejoice and be glad for I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of nations like an overflowing torrent (Isaiah 66:10-14c).

Psalm — Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (Psalm 66).

Second Reading — May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ (Galatians 6:14-18).

Gospel — Jesus sends his disciples out in pairs to bring his peace and proclaim the kingdom of God (Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 [1-9]). The English translation of the Psalm Responses from the Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International

In today's Gospel passage, Jesus sent the seventy-two out to prepare people's hearts and minds for him. The disciples whom he sent were to rely on the hospitality of those whom they served, and above all, to proclaim the kingdom of God. When they returned, joyful that so many had been healed through Christ's power, Jesus told them that true joy is to know our names are written in heaven. In other words, we must keep our eyes fixed on the ultimate goal, to be with God for eternity. In the heavenly Jerusalem, we will find comfort and overflowing nourishment. Our hearts will know joy beyond what we can imagine. Saint Paul tells us today that knowing the grace of Jesus Christ changes everything, giving new perspective, peace, and mercy.

CALLED TO HIGHER THINGS

Think about a typical day for you. From the time you awake until your day ends, you may be busy, focused on work or family with little time to pause except perhaps a few moments for lunch or dinner. Most of us would say this is an accurate description of life as we know it. And if we are honest with ourselves, we see much good that comes from the attention we pay to the people in our lives and the tasks that we accomplish. We may even be mindful of our call to do these things with and through the Lord as we go about our lives. Yet we must remember that we are also called to higher things. We are in the world but not of it. Our ultimate goal is to be with God for eternity, and all our activities, tasks, and interactions must bear this great purpose in mind.

THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS AT HAND

Jesus sent the seventy-two to proclaim the kingdom of God. They were to show people God's love by the way in which they lived. They were to travel simply, with only the provisions that were needed, rely on the good will of the people they served, and care for those who were in need. While some of us are called to live as missionaries, visiting places far from the comfort of home, most of us are called to live faithfully in our daily lives, where we are, with family and friends, co-workers, fellow citizens of our local towns and cities, our country, and the world. Whether we go to far-off lands to serve and share Christ's message of mercy or we serve in simple ways at home and in our local place, we must remember that whenever we reach out to heal, forgive, and show compassion, the kingdom of God is at hand. Christ is with us and will remain with us.

A Note from our Seminarian: Antonio Espinoza

Hello St. Anthony's!

My name is Antonio Espinoza, and before I introduce myself, I would like to first express my deep gratitude for the hospitality you have given me upon my arrival to your parish. I have only been here since June 4th and I have received a very warm welcome from many of you. While I have only been here for a short time, it's clear that the Holy Spirit dwells close to your hearts and the love of Christ is made present in your actions.

I'm sure many of you are wondering who is this Antonio that Fr. Rafael and Fr. Mac keeps mentioning. I am 23 years old and I am the eldest in a set of triplets. I was born and raised here in the East Bay Area and grew up in Brentwood with Immaculate Heart of Mary Church being my home parish. I received a local education until high school where my brothers and I attended a Catholic high school called De La Salle in Concord.

It was during this time that I received my initial call to the priesthood while on pilgrimage to Medjugorje in 2016 where the Virgin Mary, whose many titles include the Queen of Priests, called me to the vocation. I did not answer this call immediately as I had no clue what it would mean to be a priest. I went on retreats with the La Sallian Christian brothers in high school and diocesan retreats like "Quo Vadis". But the idea of banking and trade CONTINUE→ seemed far more interesting. I continued my studies at St. Mary's College of California where I received my B.A in Economics and B.A in Theology & Religious Studies.

It was not until my third year in college where I finally answered that call to the priesthood. While I was studying abroad in Rome at the Angelicum in the early months of 2020 COVID broke out. It was during this time in Italian lockdowns and soup kitchen ministry that my heart turned back to what truly mattered, not the trends of the stock market but to the state of God's flock. A flock that was starving in more ways than food. Upon my return to the United States I applied to the Diocese of Oakland and began a year of formation. After this year and my graduation from Saint Mary's in 2021, I entered St. Patrick's Seminary and have completed my first year.

Before I say farewell, I must ask you for your help. While my name is very Spanish, I do not know how to speak my mother tongue and I need your help. Please don't be afraid to speak Spanish to me and if I look at you with a confused expression, please be patient with me. My brain is taking the time to translate what you said. And if I speak poorly, correct me on the proper way to say things. It is absolutely crucial that I learn Spanish so that I may be able to speak and guide God's people in its entirety.

If you are able to, please keep me in your prayers and know I pray for you and St. Anthony's Parish. Also, I read the info about the Kid's Bible Camp in July! Thank you.

God Bless, Antonio Espinoza

LA BUENA NUEVA ESTÁ EN CAMINO

Esta semana, en pleno verano, las Escrituras nos dan la bienvenida con alegría, paz, misericordia y más paz. Suena un poco como a Adviento ¿cierto? Con frecuencia asociamos al profeta Isaías con ese tiempo de preparación, y nuestra primera lectura suena con palabras como regocijar, consolar y alegrarse. Los israelitas tenían motivos para alegrarse, pues habían regresado, vuelto a casa, a una Jerusalén reconstruida tras su exilio en Babilonia.

En el Evangelio, los setenta y dos discípulos que habían sido enviados tienen su propio “regreso a casa”, volviendo a Jesús después de haber difundido la Buena Nueva del Reino y en haber preparado a la gente para el “advenimiento” de Jesús a sus ciudades y pueblos en su largo camino a Jerusalén. Como los exiliados que comenta Isaías, los discípulos regresan regocijados.

La Buena Nueva, el Reino de Dios, está llegando, incluso en el verano. Como nos recuerda el salmo de hoy: “¡Grite con alegría a Dios toda la tierra!”

Decimocuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En el pasaje del Evangelio de hoy, Jesús envió a los setenta y dos a preparar los corazones y las mentes de la gente para él. Los discípulos que envió debían confiar en la hospitalidad de aquellos a quienes servían y, sobre todo, proclamar el reino de Dios. Cuando regresaron, contentos de que tantos habían sido curados por el poder de Cristo, Jesús les dijo que la verdadera alegría es saber que nuestros nombres están escritos en el cielo. En otras palabras, debemos mantener nuestra mirada fija en el objetivo final, estar con Dios por la eternidad. En la Jerusalén celestial, encontraremos consuelo y alimento desbordante. Nuestros corazones conocerán la alegría más allá de lo que podemos imaginar. San Pablo nos dice hoy que conocer la gracia de Jesucristo lo cambia todo, dando una nueva perspectiva, paz y misericordia.

LLAMADO A COSAS MÁS ALTAS

Piensa en un día típico para ti. Desde que te despiertas hasta que termina el día, puedes estar ocupado, centrado en el trabajo o en la familia, con poco tiempo para detenerte, salvo quizás unos momentos para comer o cenar. La mayoría de nosotros diría que ésta es una descripción exacta de la vida tal y como la conocemos. Y si somos sinceros con nosotros mismos, vemos que hay mucho bien en la atención que prestamos a las personas de nuestra vida y a las tareas que realizamos. Puede que incluso seamos conscientes de nuestra llamada a hacer estas cosas con y a través del Señor mientras llevamos a cabo nuestras vidas. Sin embargo, debemos recordar que también estamos llamados a cosas más elevadas estamos en el mundo, pero no somos de él- nuestro objetivo final es estar con Dios por la eternidad, y todas nuestras actividades, tareas e interacciones deben tener en cuenta este gran propósito.

EL REINO DE DIOS ESTÁ CERCA

Jesús envió a los setenta y dos a proclamar el reino de Dios. Debían mostrar a la gente el amor de Dios con su forma de vivir. Debían viajar con sencillez, con sólo las provisiones necesarias, confiar en la buena voluntad de la gente a la que servían y atender a los necesitados. Aunque algunos de nosotros estamos llamados a vivir como misioneros, visitando lugares alejados de la comodidad de nuestro hogar, la mayoría de nosotros estamos llamados a vivir fielmente en nuestra vida diaria, donde estamos, con la familia y los amigos, los compañeros de trabajo, los conciudadanos de nuestros pueblos y ciudades locales, nuestro país y el mundo. Ya sea que vayamos a tierras lejanas para servir y compartir el mensaje de misericordia de Cristo o que sirvamos de manera sencilla en casa y en nuestro lugar CONTINUAR→
