RIGHT RELATIONSHIPS

Our God is about relationships. In the first reading, Moses reminds the Israelites that the laws, which are already in their hearts, keep them in right relationship with the God who loves them so much that they always find forgiveness. Centuries later, along comes Jesus, whom Paul describes to the Colossians as “the image of the invisible God,” the very embodiment of this God of love. In his parable about the good Samaritan, Jesus explains how the law of love overrules the letter of the law. Instead of answering the question “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus demonstrates that it is not about who is worthy of being loved, but rather loving as God loves—about being neighbor, about being the good Samaritan. Jesus wants us to continue his work as images of this God of love by loving all people, even those who seem to be our enemies. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Love God. Love neighbor. This is our call, the sum of all it means to live as Christ's holy people in the world. Moses told the people that the law—all that sums up this call to love God and neighbor—isn't far off, something distant and hard to reach. It is in our hearts and minds, on our lips. We have only to live what has been instilled in us through the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, the fullness of God's love that dwells in us through Christ. We who are baptized into Christ's life rely on this presence as we extend ourselves in service as did the Samaritan who saw the need of the injured traveler and stopped everything to give comfort, care, and mercy. Such love of neighbor is an outpouring and sign of the love of Christ.

LOVE GOD

What does it mean to love God with all our heart, being, strength, and mind? We turn our hearts to God in prayer, quiet moments of reflection, and participation in the Mass and sacraments. Our whole being may turn to the Lord in trust in the midst of troubled times or when we need courage. We find strength to live as Christ's people, even when faced with the questions, doubts, and derision of others. We may turn to the Lord with our mind as we prayerfully read sacred scripture and learn more fully the teaching of the Church. All of these things point to a singular desire to know God deeply. The love we have for God is, after all, a reflection of the great love God has for each of us.

LOVE NEIGHBOR

Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan points to the impact our love of God is to have in our lives. The priest and Levite were more concerned with observing the letter of the law rather than living its essence. The Samaritan found himself unable to pass by without coming to the traveler's aid. Who are the travelers whom we meet? What is our response? Are we so filled with the love of God that we cannot ignore the suffering of hunger or homelessness, the needs of the lonely and sick? Loving God necessitates loving our neighbor. We cannot have one without the other. Jesus shows us that the love we are to share is selfless, sacrificial. The Samaritan not only cared for the traveler's wounds, but took him to find shelter and paid for his care. He went the extra mile on the journey of faith. Who is your neighbor today? How will you love him or her? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

A Note from our Seminarian: Antonio Espinoza

Hello St. Anthony's!

My name is Antonio Espinoza, and before I introduce myself, I would like to first express my deep gratitude for the hospitality you have given me upon my arrival to your parish. I have only been here since June 4th and I have received a very warm welcome from many of you. While I have only been here for a short time, it's clear that the Holy Spirit dwells close to your hearts and the love of Christ is made present in your actions.

I'm sure many of you are wondering who is this Antonio that Fr. Rafael and Fr. Mac keeps mentioning. I am 23 years old and I am the eldest in a set of triplets. I was born and raised here in the East Bay Area and grew up in Brentwood with Immaculate Heart of Mary Church being my home parish. I received a local education until high school where my brothers and I attended a Catholic high school called De La Salle in Concord.

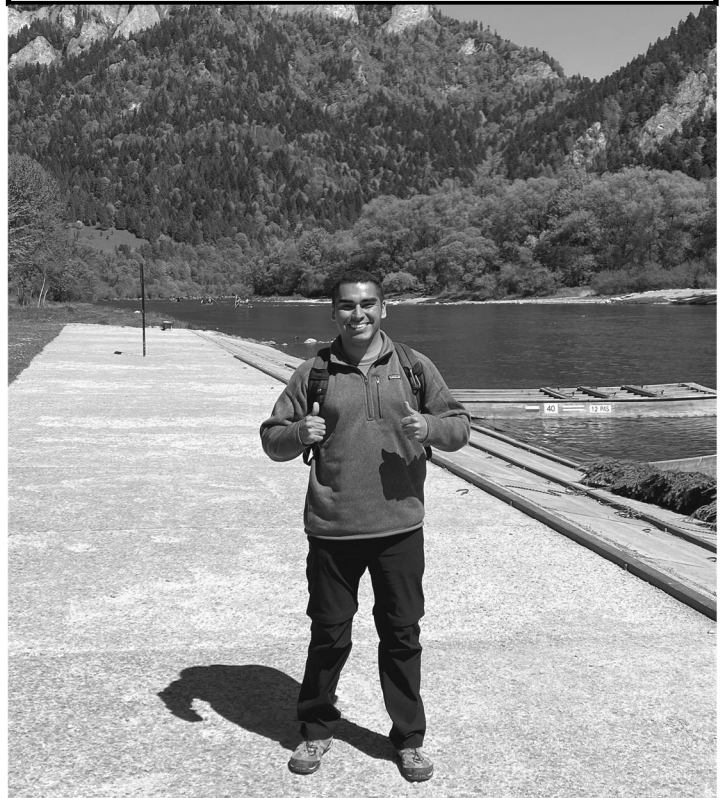

It was during this time that I received my initial call to the priesthood while on pilgrimage to Medjugorje in 2016 where the Virgin Mary, whose many titles include the Queen of Priests, called me to the vocation. I did not answer this call immediately as I had no clue what it would mean to be a priest. I went on retreats with the La Sallian Christian brothers in high school and diocesan retreats like "Quo Vadis". But the idea of banking and trade seemed far more interesting. I continued my studies at St. Mary's College of California where I received my B.A in Economics and B.A in Theology & Religious Studies.

It was not until my third year in college where I finally answered that call to the priesthood. While I was studying abroad in Rome at the Angelicum in the early months of 2020 COVID broke out. It was during this time in Italian lockdowns and soup kitchen ministry that my heart turned back to what truly mattered, not the trends of the stock market but to the state of God's flock. A flock that was starving in more ways than food. Upon my return to the United States I applied to the Diocese of Oakland and began a year of formation. After this year and my graduation from Saint Mary's in 2021, I entered St. Patrick's Seminary and have completed my first year.

to speak my mother tongue and I need your help. Please don't be afraid to speak Spanish to me and if I look at you with a confused expression, please be patient with me. My brain is taking the time to translate what you said. And if I speak poorly, correct me on the proper way to say things. It is absolutely crucial that I learn Spanish so that I may be able to speak and guide God's people in its entirety.

If you are able to, please keep me in your prayers and know I pray for you and St. Anthony's Parish. Also, I read the info about the Kid's Bible Camp in July! Thank you.

God Bless, Antonio Espinoza

RELACIONES CORRECTAS

Nuestro Dios es acerca de relaciones. En la primera lectura, Moisés les recuerda a los israelitas que las leyes, que ya están en sus corazones, los mantiene en una relación correcta con el Dios que los ama tanto que siempre consiguen el perdón. Siglos después, llega Jesús, a quien Pablo describe a los colosenses como “la imagen del Dios invisible”, la encarnación misma de este Dios de amor. En su parábola acerca del buen samaritano, Jesús explica cómo la ley de amor anula la letra de la ley. En lugar de responder a la pregunta “¿quién es mi prójimo?” Jesús demuestra que no se trata de quien es digno de ser amado, sino de amar como Dios ama, de ser prójimo, de ser el buen samaritano. Jesús quiere que continuemos su obra como imágenes de este Dios de amor, amando a todas las personas, incluso a las que parecen ser nuestros enemigos. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Decimoquinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Amar a Dios. Amar al prójimo. Esta es nuestra llamada, la suma de todo lo que significa vivir como el pueblo santo de Cristo en el mundo. Moisés dijo al pueblo que la ley —todo lo que resume esta llamada a amar a Dios y al prójimo— no está lejos, algo distante y difícil de alcanzar. Está en nuestros corazones y mentes, en nuestros labios. Sólo tenemos que vivir lo que se nos ha inculcado por la gracia de Dios y el poder del Espíritu Santo, la plenitud del amor de Dios que habita en nosotros por medio de Cristo. Los que estamos bautizados en la vida de Cristo contamos con esta presencia cuando nos extendemos en el servicio como lo hizo el samaritano que vio la necesidad del viajero herido y dejó de hacer todo para dar consuelo, cuidado y misericordia. Ese amor al prójimo es una efusión y un signo del amor de Cristo.

AMAR A DIOS

¿Qué significa amar a Dios con todo nuestro corazón, ser, fuerza y mente? Dirigimos nuestro corazón a Dios en la oración, en los momentos de reflexión y en la participación en la misa y los sacramentos. Todo nuestro ser puede dirigirse al Señor con confianza en medio de los tiempos difíciles o cuando necesitamos valor. Encontramos fuerza para vivir como pueblo de Cristo, incluso cuando nos enfrentamos a las preguntas, dudas y burlas de los demás. Podemos dirigirnos al Señor con nuestra mente mientras leemos en oración la Sagrada Escritura y aprendemos más plenamente la enseñanza de la Iglesia. Todas estas cosas apuntan a un deseo singular de conocer profundamente a Dios. El amor que tenemos por Dios es, después de todo, un reflejo del gran amor que Dios tiene por cada uno de nosotros.

AMOR AL PRÓJIMO

La parábola de Jesús sobre el buen samaritano señala el impacto que debe tener nuestro amor a Dios en nuestras vidas. El sacerdote y el levita estaban más preocupados por cumplir la letra de la ley que por vivir su esencia. El samaritano se vio incapaz de pasar de largo sin acudir en ayuda del viajero. ¿Quiénes son los viajeros que encontramos? ¿Cuál es nuestra respuesta? ¿Estamos tan llenos del amor de Dios que no podemos ignorar el sufrimiento del hambre o de los sintecho o que viven en las calles, las necesidades del solitario y del enfermo? Amar a Dios exige amar al prójimo. No podemos tener uno sin el otro. Jesús nos muestra que el amor que debemos compartir es desinteresado, sacrificado. El samaritano no sólo atendió las heridas del viajero, sino que lo llevó a buscar refugio y pagó por sus cuidados. Hizo un esfuerzo adicional en el camino CONTINUAR→
