SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

Stephen, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked up intently to heaven and saw the glory of God. (Acts 7:55)

Psalm:

The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth. (Ps 97)

Second Reading:

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." (Rv 22:13)

Gospel:

"Father, they are your gift to me. I wish that where I am they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me, because you loved me before the foundation of the world." (Jn 17:24)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

7th Sunday of Easter—The Ascension of the Lord

The famous 20th century St. Padre Pio said once that he would wait outside the gates of heaven until the people in his life had entered. I'm not sure that I, or frankly many people I know, would say that and mean it. Yet that is precisely the kind of attitude we see in Jesus as he prays for us in the Gospel today. Having celebrated the Ascension of the Lord just a few days ago, we now hear the Son of God at the Last Supper pray to his Father "that they may be brought to perfection as one" (John 17:23). What does this mean for us?

I'd wager that we are not surprised that Jesus wants to make us perfect — that is, happy, whole, and healed. The shocker is that he desires this for us collectively and not just individually. Perfection is a team sport. We need each other to be perfect. Jesus is like a mother longing for her adult children to learn how to be in loving support of one another. He wants the perfection of his disciples to be not some individualistic plan of moral uprightness, but a loving communion of brothers and sisters.

Let's apply this practically. Do I see my participation at Mass as something I do merely for my own peace and edification, or as something I do with and for the people around me? Do I see my ongoing need for forgiveness as something that simply makes me feel better, or as a task that heals those around me, too? Is my dearest hope to individually get to heaven when I die, or is it to be part of the great procession of souls, together marching towards the heavenly Jerusalem? Do I want to be in heaven with people I currently find difficult? How would my life change if I did?

— Father John Muir

(PRACTICING)—CATHOLIC

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

. That the World May Believe

I love today's Gospel because, in it, Jesus prays for me.

And you.

And the guy sitting next to you at Mass. And the priest, and the altar server, and all the people in all the churches in all the towns in all the world who woke up this morning and headed to Mass because, while it's true that God is everywhere, the Body and Blood of Jesus is only found in one place.

And he prays for the barista who will sell you your coffee later today and see your crucifix and hear you say, "God bless," and think, "That's a weird necklace, and I don't believe in God," but who will one day, at her lowest point, wonder if anyone ever truly loved her, and remember the sight of that broken and bloodied Corpus.

Today, Jesus prays for the person you passed on the way into the parking lot this morning, the one who doesn't go to Mass anymore but who always walks his dog on this street, on this morning, for reasons he can't explain.

He prays for your great-great grandparents and your great-great grandchildren.

"Those who will believe in me through their word." That's me. That's you. That's us. We're the ones who believe through the word of the Apostles, who bore witness to the life and death and Resurrection of the God-Man, Jesus Christ, and whose testimony to that life is an eternal flame illuminating the understanding of every human being who will ever say, "I believe."

But if we listen to what Jesus says today, we must understand: it's not just the Apostles' job, and it's not done. It's not a book that is closed. It's a mission that is alive and ongoing, and it's as much ours as it was theirs: that the world may believe that you sent me.

LECTURAS DEL DOMINGO

Primera Lectura:

Esteban, lleno del Espíritu Santo, miró fijamente al cielo y vio la gloria de Dios. (Hechos 7:55)

Salmo:

El Señor es rey, Altísimo sobre toda la tierra. (Salmo 97)

Segunda Lectura:

“Yo soy el Alfa y la Omega, el primero y el último, el principio y el fin.” (Ap 22:13)

Evangelio:

“Padre, ellos son tu regalo para mí. Deseo que donde yo estoy, ellos también estén conmigo, para que vean mi gloria, la que me diste, porque me amaste desde antes de la creación del mundo.” (Jn 17:24)

MEDITACION DEL EVANGELIO

7º Domingo de Pascua—La Ascensión del Señor

El famoso Padre Pío del siglo XX dijo una vez que esperaría fuera de las puertas del cielo hasta que las personas de su vida entraran. No estoy seguro de que yo, ni francamente, muchas personas que conozco, lo dirían con sinceridad. Sin embargo, esa es precisamente la actitud que vemos en Jesús al orar por nosotros en el Evangelio de hoy. Tras celebrar la Ascensión del Señor hace apenas unos días, ahora escuchamos al Hijo de Dios en la Última Cena orar a su Padre «para que sean perfectos en unidad» (Juan 17:23). ¿Qué significa esto para nosotros?

Apuesto a que no nos sorprende que Jesús quiera hacernos perfectos, es decir, felices, completos y sanados. Lo sorprendente es que lo desea para nosotros colectivamente, no solo individualmente. La perfección es un deporte de equipo. Nos necesitamos unos a otros para ser perfectos. Jesús es como una madre que anhela que sus hijos adultos aprendan a apoyarse mutuamente con amor. Él quiere que la perfección de sus discípulos no sea un plan individualista de rectitud moral, sino una comunión amorosa entre hermanos y hermanas.

Apliquemoslo en la práctica. ¿Considero mi participación en la misa solo para mi propia paz y edificación, o como algo que hago con y para quienes me rodean? ¿Considero mi constante necesidad de perdón como algo que simplemente me hace sentir mejor, o también como una tarea que sana a quienes me rodean? ¿Mi mayor esperanza es ir al cielo individualmente al morir, o es formar parte de la gran procesión de almas, marchando juntas hacia la Jerusalén celestial? ¿Quiero estar en el cielo con personas que actualmente me resultan difíciles? ¿Cómo cambiaría mi vida si así fuera?

— Padre John Muir

CATOLICA - (PRACTICANTE) RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Para que el mundo pueda creer

Me gusta el Evangelio de hoy, porque en este, Jesús ora por mí.

Y por ti.

Y por el congregante que está a tu lado en la Misa. Y por el sacerdote y el monaguillo, y por todas las personas de todas las iglesias de todos los pueblos del mundo, que se despertaron esta mañana y asistieron a Misa, porque, si bien es cierto que Dios está en todas partes, el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Jesús, solo se encuentra en un lugar.

Y ora por el barista que te venderá tu café más tarde hoy y mira tu crucifijo y te escucha decir: “Dios te bendiga”, y piensa: “ese es un collar extraño y no creo en Dios”, pero quién algún día, en su punto más bajo, se preguntará si alguien lo amó de verdad y recordará la visión de ese cuerpo destrozado y ensangrentado.

Hoy, Jesús reza por la persona con la que te cruzaste esta mañana camino al estacionamiento, esa que ya no va a Misa, pero siempre pasea a su perro por esta calle, en esta mañana, por razones que no puede explicar.

Él ora por tus tatarabuelos y tus tataranietos.

“Por aquellos que, por medio de su palabra, creerán en mí”. Esa soy yo. Ese eres tú. Esos somos nosotros. Somos nosotros los que creemos a través de la palabra de los apóstoles, quienes fueron testigos de la vida, muerte y Resurrección del Dios hecho hombre, Jesucristo, cuyo testimonio de su vida es una llama eterna que ilumina el entendimiento de todo ser humano que dirá: “Yo creo”.

Sin embargo, si escuchamos lo que Jesús dice hoy, debemos comprender que: no es solo el trabajo de los apóstoles. No es un libro ya terminado. Es una misión viva y continua, es tanto nuestra como lo fue de ellos: que el mundo crea que tú me enviaste.
