Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

CHRISTIAN HOSPITALITY

Day in and day out, we are required to make judgment calls informed by tough, durable, serviceable Christian love. We do what we can do, and God takes notice. God is in charge of rewards, and a glass of water will do when that is what we have to offer with a glad and open heart.

Paul gives us a clear theology for the missionary work we do whenever anybody is close at hand. He reminds us that our work, our ministry, is carried on in concert with Christ. We have been baptized into his death and life. In any given moment both life and death are there, a kind of play of shadow and light. Sometimes it's difficult to tell where shadow leaves off and light begins. God will take care of that, too.

HOSPITALIDAD CRISTIANA

En todo momento se requiere de nosotros que hagamos decisiones para la acción, informadas por el amor cristiano que es difícil, duradero y útil. Hacemos lo que podemos, y Dios presta atención. Dios se encarga de las recompensas, y un vaso de agua es suficiente cuando es lo que podemos proporcionar con corazón abierto y alegre.

Pablo nos da una teología clara para el trabajo misionero que hacemos cuando alguien está cerca. Nos recuerda que nuestro trabajo, nuestro ministerio, se cumple en coordinación con Cristo. Hemos sido bautizados en su muerte y en su vida. A cada momento, tanto la vida como la muerte están presentes, un juego de intercambio entre sombra y luz. A veces, es difícil diferenciar el margen entre la luz y la sombra. Pero, Dios se encargará de esto, también.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — La hospitalidad genuina se alaba mucho (2 Reyes 4:8-11, 14-16a).

Salmo — Proclamaré sin cesar la misericordia del Señor (Salmo 89 [88]).

Segunda lectura — Están muertos al pecado por su bautismo en Cristo Jesús. Vivan para Dios en Cristo Jesús (Romanos 6:3-4, 8-11).

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today could be seen as a simple recipe for right living. In the Hebrew Bible, hospitality is regarded as one of the highest virtues. Conditions were harsh, and when people received guests or strangers, they washed their feet, provided a meal, and offered shelter if they could. In Second Kings, a woman's generosity is rewarded with the prospect of a child. In Romans we are called to recognize our baptism in Christ. We are called to be "dead to sin, and living in Christ Jesus." In the Gospel passage from Saint Luke, Jesus bids us to take up our cross, and to receive others as if we were receiving Christ. Put them together, and all of them are a call to see the holy, to see God in others, and to live our lives in Christ.

THE MESSAGE SEEMS HARSH

On first reading, our Gospel seems very harsh. The idea of taking up our cross can be fearful or have negative connotations, as if it were something only a few can do. It is also confusing. Scripture tells us to honor our father and mother, and yet here are told we must love Jesus more than our parents or children, or we are not worthy. The message that Jesus intends to convey, however, is not to give up these people, but rather to choose Christ first.

Sometimes this means being countercultural. For a family, how do we make choices to keep Christ in the picture? It could mean that when you make plans to take the family to that water park for the weekend, you should also locate the local church so you can attend Mass. Or maybe it means not placing your child on the soccer team with 10 a.m. Sunday games, or rescheduling another part of your life to keep Christ foremost. Perhaps it is something as simple as locking yourself in the bathroom for five minutes so that you have time to pray. Maybe it means listening to an audiobook of scriptures on your commute to work. All we do is for naught if we do not include Christ.

THERE ARE MANY "CUPS OF WATER"

Don't get caught up in taking this scripture literally. Yes, you may give someone a glass of water, invite the staff of your parish for a meal, hand an apple or a dollar bill to a homeless person, or take a shift in a shelter. But sometimes, what is being asked for is simply a kind word or a helping hand. Seeing an elderly person having trouble and helping them through the crosswalk, calming someone's toddler in the grocery store while they pay their bill. Offer a smile, a compliment, or a word of encouragement. Say hello to a stranger. We do not know who is parched with loneliness or feeling overwhelmed. Look for the Christ in others and respond with simple kindness and hospitality.

RSVP through our Website, Facebook page or through a phone call during office business hours.

Bishop Barber To Resume Public Masses July 1

However, before resuming public worship, parishes must submit a Parish Reopening Plan for Bishop Barber's approval, specific to the parish's facilities. Upon receiving the bishop's permission, parishes may resume daily Masses, baptisms, funerals and other sacraments and liturgies.

Bishop Barber states: As people of faith, we must always be aware of the importance of acting in a socially responsible way, to give good example to others, and to act with charity toward all. Everything possible should be done to provide the church's sacramental life in a timely and reasonable way.

The current situation remains dangerous and fragile, and civil law varies within our two counties. While much has been achieved, there remains the potential that the gains could be lost by a second more virulent wave.

Our first consideration is the spiritual and physical health of the faithful and those whom they encounter, especially the most vulnerable—the elderly and those with chronic illness. We must rely on medical professionals and governmental standards to inform our decisions.

The dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday and Holy Day Masses continues until further notice. Although the faithful are dispensed from their obligation to attend Mass, they are encouraged to spend time in prayer on Sunday (such as following a livestream Mass or participating in a spiritual or corporal act of mercy).

Those who are at higher risk of COVID-19 (e.g., those who are sixty-five and older or who have underlying health conditions) are advised to continue staying at home. Likewise, anyone with a temperature, a cough of any sort, and anyone feeling ill, should not come to the church for a visit or for any ceremonies.

Pope Francis' prayer to Our Lady, Health of the Sick

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.

At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain with steadfast faith.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us through the Cross to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.

Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

LA DIÓCESIS DE OAKLAND ESTABLECE PROTOCOLOS PARA REANUDAR MISAS PÚBLICAS

En colaboración con las otras diócesis católicas de California, y siguiendo las directrices de los funcionarios públicos de los condados de Alameda y Contra Costa, el obispo Michael C. Barber, SJ, ha emitido protocolos para la reanudación de las Misas públicas en la diócesis de Oakland.

Como gente de fe, siempre debemos ser conscientes de la importancia de actuar de una manera socialmente responsable, dar buen ejemplo y actuar con caridad hacia los demás. Se debe hacer todo lo posible para proporcionar la vida sacramental de la iglesia de manera oportuna y razonable. La situación actual continua siendo peligrosa y frágil y las ordenanzas civiles varían dentro de nuestros dos condados. Aunque se ha logrado mucho, existe el potencial de que lo que hemos alcanzado se pierda con una segunda ola más virulenta.

Nuestra primera consideración es la salud física y espiritual de los fieles y de aquellos con quienes se encuentran, especialmente los más vulnerables: los ancianos y las personas con enfermedades crónicas. Debemos confiar en los profesionales médicos y las normas gubernamentales para tomar decisiones informadas.

La dispensa de la obligación de asistir a las misas de domingo y día santo continúa hasta nuevo aviso. Aunque a los fieles se les exime de su obligación de asistir a Misa, se les anima a pasar tiempo en oración el domingo (Ya sea viendo o escuchando una Misa en vivo o participando en un acto de misericordia espiritual o corporal). Como precaución para los que están en alto riesgo, la dispensa de asistir a la Misa dominical continuará aún después de que se reanuden las Misas públicas.

Dar se ha hecho mas Simple

Durante este tiempo cuando nuestra Misa pública se han suspendido debido al coronavirus COVID-19, continúe ofreciendo su apoyo a San Antonio con sus donaciones monetarias. Sus aportaciones nos permiten pagar nuestras deudas. Por favor continúe dando su colecta dominical usando Give+; la nueva forma de dar en línea; donde dando se hace simple. Descargue la aplicación gratuita Give+ de la App Store o visite el sitio web de San Antonio en www.stanthonyoakley.com y haga clic en el menú "About Us" y después en "Online Giving". Abra su cuenta hoy y siga aportando. También puede depositar sus sobres de la colecta dominical en el buzón de correo localizado en la parte de enfrente de la iglesia cerca de la puerta principal.
