GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Most Holy Trinity

John 16:12-15

I am amazed at how my four siblings teach their many kids in age-appropriate ways. For example, now that my nephew Brandon is 24 years of age, they give him insights and freedoms that would have been positively confounding or even dangerous when he was a toddler. Imagine if they had taught him at age four how to drive a car, use a credit card online, or handle power tools. But eventually, they did, and he is a high functioning young man, I'm proud to say. They are good teachers.

This week we learn that Jesus teaches us in a similar way. He says to his Apostles, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now" (John 16:12). How disappointing for them. But imagine at that moment, before his resurrection and ascension, if the Lord had started telling them about synods and sacraments, popes and parishes, martyrs and monasteries, rosaries and relics, catechisms and crucifixes? They would have been absolutely overwhelmed, confused, and discouraged. He tells them what they need to know, when it is time for them to know it.

So he does for us. Jesus has unceasingly taught the Church as she matures through the centuries, just as he teaches you and me through our lives in ways we can understand. Our task should be to learn what he is teaching us now, knowing that (although revelation per se is complete in him and his Apostles), he never ceases to teach us as we spiritually mature. Be confident: he knows what you are ready to learn now.

— Father John Muir

(PRACTICING)—CATHOLIC

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Best Kind of Mystery

"Do you have a mystery for me to solve?"

If I've heard it once, I've heard it a hundred times. My daughter is obsessed with mysteries. It's not enough for her to read about them in the pages of every Nancy Drew book she can get her hands on. She wants more than that. She wants a real-life mystery. A puzzle that resists being solved. A question that eludes an answer. Something that isn't easy to wrap her head around.

And not surprisingly, she's not satisfied with the "mysteries" I can offer her. The Mystery of Mom's Missing Hair Tie (spoiler alert: it was in my purse). The Mystery of the Missing Lunch Ham (oops, Mom finished it).

Simple answers are so boring. "Will I ever have a real mystery?" she moans.

I get it. We're all this way, really. We are drawn to the mysterious, to the inscrutable. It's because we know that the answers to the really big questions are ones that can't be explained in a neat and tidy way. We know that the reality of life and love and the human condition is something we can't quite fit our heads around. We know that there is so much in this world, in this universe, that we can't...understand. So, in a way, mysteries are the only things that really make sense to us.

Why do we love mysteries so much? Because God is a mystery. And that's never as clear as it is today, on the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, the mystery that boondoggles us all. Four relations. Three persons. One God.

Don't ask me to explain it. I could, but I don't have the word space, and frankly, it might not even make sense then. It's a mystery, you see. A real one. The best kind

MEDITACION DEL EVANGELIO

La Santísima Trinidad

Juan 16:12-15

Me sorprende cómo mis cuatro hermanos enseñan a sus numerosos hijos de forma apropiada para su edad. Por ejemplo, ahora que mi sobrino Brandon tiene 24 años, le dan perspectivas y libertades que habrían sido realmente desconcertantes o incluso peligrosas cuando era pequeño. Imaginen si le hubieran enseñado a los cuatro años a conducir un coche, usar una tarjeta de crédito en línea o manejar herramientas eléctricas. Pero al final lo hicieron, y me enorgullece decir que es un joven muy funcional. Son buenos maestros.

Esta semana aprendemos que Jesús nos enseña de forma similar. Les dice a sus apóstoles: «Tengo mucho que decirles, pero ahora no lo pueden soportar» (Juan 16:12). Qué decepción para ellos. Pero imaginen en ese momento, antes de su resurrección y ascensión, si el Señor hubiera empezado a hablarles de sínodos y sacramentos, papas y parroquias, mártires y monasterios, rosarios y reliquias, catecismos y crucifijos. Se habrían sentido abrumados, confundidos y desanimados. Él les dice lo que necesitan saber, cuando es el momento de saberlo.

Lo mismo hace con nosotros. Jesús ha enseñado incesantemente a la Iglesia a medida que madura a lo largo de los siglos, así como nos enseña a ti y a mí a lo largo de nuestras vidas de maneras que podemos comprender. Nuestra tarea debe ser aprender lo que él nos enseña ahora, sabiendo que (aunque la revelación per se es completa en él y sus apóstoles), él nunca deja de enseñarnos a medida que maduramos espiritualmente. Tengan confianza: él sabe lo que están listos para aprender ahora.

CATOLICA - (PRACTICANTE) RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

El mejor tipo de misterio

“¿Tienes un misterio para mí que resolver?”
Sí, lo he escuchado una vez, lo he escuchado cien veces. Mi hija está obsesionada con los misterios. No le basta con leer sobre ellos en las páginas de todos los libros de Nancy Drew que puede conseguir. Ella quiere más que eso. Quiere un misterio de la vida real. Un rompecabezas que se resiste a ser resuelto. Una pregunta que elude una respuesta. Algo que no es fácil de comprender.

No me sorprende que ella no esté satisfecha con los “misterios” que puedo ofrecerle. El misterio del lazo para el cabello perdido de mamá (spoiler: estaba en mi bolso). El misterio del jamón del almuerzo perdido (ups, mamá lo terminó).

Las respuestas simples son muy aburridas. “¿Tendré alguna vez un verdadero misterio?” se queja ella.

Lo entiendo. Todos somos así en realidad. Nos sentimos atraídos por lo misterioso, por lo inescrutable. Es porque sabemos que las respuestas a las preguntas realmente importantes son aquellas que no se pueden explicar de forma clara y ordenada.

Sabemos que la realidad de la vida, el amor y la condición humana es algo que no podemos comprender. Sabemos que hay tantas cosas en este mundo, en este universo, que no podemos...comprender. Entonces, de cierto modo, los misterios son las únicas cosas que, en realidad, tienen sentido para nosotros.

¿Por qué amamos tanto los misterios? Porque Dios es un misterio. Eso nunca ha sido tan claro como lo es ahora, en la Fiesta de la Santísima Trinidad, el misterio que nos desconcierta a todos. Cuatro relaciones. Tres personas. Un Dios.

No me pidas que te lo explique. Podría, pero no tengo el espacio para explicarlo, y, francamente, puede que ni siquiera tenga sentido entonces. Es un misterio, lo ves. Uno de verdad. El mejor de su tipo.

URGENT NEED OF A LIVING KIDNEY DONOR

Thank you for your consideration, prayers, and for any support you may be able to offer. May God continue to bless you and your parish community.

- My name is Joel Esteva, and I am a member of the St. Michael Catholic Community in Livermore, where I also serve as an active choir member. I'm writing today with a humble request and a prayerful heart.
- I am currently living with stage 5 kidney disease, and I am in urgent need of a living kidney donor. In an effort to raise awareness and possibly connect with someone who may be willing to help, I created a website: kidney4joel.com.
- My goal is not only to find a donor, but to also raise awareness about the need for living organ donation. A kidney from a living donor typically lasts longer and offers better outcomes than one from a deceased donor. It is truly a gift of life.
