Email and Text Scam Involving Priests

Please be aware of ongoing phishing scams involving emails and texts purportedly from priests or parish/Chancery staff asking for cash or gifts cards. This is not how priests, parishes or the Diocese of Oakland seeks financial assistance for our work. If you receive an email or text from church personnel asking for assistance, confirm by calling that person and do not respond to the email or text.

Giving Made Simple

Please continue to offer your support to St. Anthony with your monetary gifts. These gifts allow us to pay our bills. Please continue giving to the Sunday collection basket by using GIVE+; the online way of giving. Visit our St. Anthony website, on the "Home Page" click "Online Giving"; you may register there and make your gift. Or you may drop your Sunday envelope in the basket at Mass or the U.S. Mailbox in the front by the Church entrance. You decide how to give, but please continue to give.

THE BREAD OF LIFE

Today's Gospel has the crowd asking Jesus three questions. First, "When did you get here," to which Jesus responds by rebuking them for their failure to grasp his miracle as a "sign," an occasion to put faith in him. Their second question about accomplishing the "works of God" has Jesus respond that faith is the "work" that God wishes. Many scholars believe this is John's answer to the faith-works dichotomy emerging in the early Christian community. Faith is the work of God in the believer, John would have us understand. The third question asked by the crowd is a request for a "sign" that would allow them to put faith in Jesus, as the manna in the desert allowed the Israelites to put faith in the Lord God. Jesus answers by revealing himself as the "bread of life" that "comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The people of Israel receive bread from heaven in response to their grumbling (Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15).

Psalm — The Lord gave them bread from heaven (Psalm 78).

Second Reading — Put on the new self that has been created in God's way (Ephesians 4:17, 20-24).

Gospel — I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger (John 6:24-35).

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel is a sequel to last week's account of Jesus feeding a large crowd with five barley loaves and a few fish. Here, Jesus is challenging the crowd to see in the bread they have eaten a sign of God's generosity in providing for all the blessings in their lives, as well as the blessing of life itself. The first reading, from Exodus, recounts how the escaped Hebrew slaves were fed in the wilderness, first with quail, then with manna. The psalm is a later reflection on the manna as the bread from heaven and a blessing from God. The selection from the letter to the Ephesians sketches the image of putting away the "old self" and putting on the new, emphasizing that a person's life in Christ needs to differ from their previous life, just as the life of a free person differs from that of a slave.

SIGNS AND WONDERS?

Today's Gospel continues into a second day the narrative that had begun the day before when, after crossing the lake to look for Jesus, a large crowd are fed with five barley loaves and two fish. The following day (today's reading), after more lake crossings, the people who had been miraculously fed are again searching for Jesus. However, they do so (as Jesus puts it) "not because you saw signs, but because you ate the loaves and were filled" (John 6:6). In John's Gospel, the word "sign" has a distinct meaning. At the wedding at Cana, after telling how Jesus turned water into wine, the Evangelist notes "Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs" that "revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him" (John 2:11). For John, signs are not just wonders to behold; they are about the revelation of God and a response of faith in Jesus.

OR MAYBE THE SIGN IS THE WONDER

When the crowd first arrives, Jesus notes that they had not appreciated the sign that he had already given; they are still focused on their physical hunger. When they ask for a sign, "that we may see and believe in you" (John 6:30), they refer to their ancestors who ate manna in the wilderness. Can Jesus top that? Can he give them more bread that will relieve them of their daily worries about going hungry? Jesus reminds the crowd that it was not Moses who gave the "bread from heaven," but his Father. Further, the Father can give them the true bread from heaven that comes down and gives life to the world. There is a parallel in the Greek between working for food that perishes and doing the works of God, which is believing in Jesus as the one God has sent. This is the sign that the people missed the day before, the sign that Jesus is pointing out to them.

Convalidation

This program is designed for those couples who are married civilly and now wish to marry in the Church. Some couples, because of differences in religious background or, a sense of distance from the Church at the time of their marriage, or due to complicating family situations, were married civilly or in some other manner that did not meet the Catholic Church's legal requirements for a valid church marriage. If you need more information about this program call the Parish Office (925) 625-2048 and ask to speak with a priest.

Like the Evangelist, the Church uses the word "sign" for its sacraments. Like the crowd, we are called to see similar "signs" of God's generosity in all the blessings of our lives.

DIOCESE OF OAKLAND CHANCELLOR STEVE WILCOX RETIREMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Bishop Michael C. Barber, SJ The Weekly, Diocesan News
Read the full article at <https://oakdiocese.org/news/diocese-of-oakland-chancellor-steve-wilcox-to-retire>

Bishop Barber shares a message of thanks to retiring Diocese of Oakland Chancellor Steve Wilcox.

Please join me in thanking Steve Wilcox as he retires as Chancellor, effective August 27. He has served faithfully and effectively as Chancellor since November 2017. Through many difficult situations, his keen commitment to our Church and to professional standards has served me, and the diocese, so very well. In our conversation regarding his departure Steve shared: "My tenure at the diocese has given me the privilege to work with many dedicated people, including pastors, parish staff and Chancery personnel. I am grateful for the opportunity you, Bishop Barber, gave me to serve as your chancellor. I'll continue volunteering in various ways, so I know our paths cross again." Steve has been my right-hand man and has taken on many challenging issues in service to our Diocese. We owe him so much for his competent and dedicated service to the Church. We will miss his wise counsel and cheerful presence on our leadership team. A search for his successor is underway.

Decimoctavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

EL PAN DE VIDA

El Evangelio de hoy presenta a la gente haciéndole tres preguntas a Jesús. Primero: “¿cuándo llegaste acá?”, a la que Jesús responde con una reprimenda por su incapacidad para entender el milagro como una “señal”, una ocasión para poner la fe en él. La segunda pregunta tenía que ver con la realización de las “obras de Dios” a la que Jesús responde que la fe es la “obra” que Dios desea. Muchos eruditos creen que esta es la respuesta de Juan a la dicotomía fe-obras que estaba surgiendo en la primera comunidad cristiana. La fe es la obra de Dios en el creyente, Juan nos quiere hacer entender. La tercera pregunta que hace la multitud es una “señal” que les permita poner su fe en Jesús, como el maná en el desierto permitió a los israelitas poner su fe en el Señor Dios. Jesús responde con la revelación de que él es el “pan de vida” que “baja del cielo y da la vida al mundo”.

Décimo Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El Evangelio de hoy es una continuación de la historia de la semana pasada en la que Jesús alimentó a una gran multitud con cinco hogazas de pan y unos pocos peces. Aquí, Jesús desafía a la multitud a ver en el pan que comieron un signo de la generosidad de Dios al proveer todas las bendiciones en sus vidas, como también la bendición de la vida misma. La primera lectura, tomada del libro del Éxodo, relata cómo los esclavos hebreos que huyeron fueron alimentados en el desierto, primero con codornices y luego con maná. El salmo es una reflexión posterior sobre el maná como pan del cielo y una bendición de Dios. La selección de la carta a los efesios esboza la imagen de despojarse del “viejo yo” y revestirse del nuevo, enfatizando que la vida de una persona en Cristo necesita diferenciarse de su vida anterior, al igual que la vida de una persona libre se diferencia de la de un esclavo.

¿SIGNOS Y MILAGROS?

El Evangelio de hoy continúa en un segundo día de narración que comenzó el día anterior cuando, después de cruzar el lago para buscar a Jesús, una gran multitud fue alimentada con dos hogazas de pan y cinco pescados. El día siguiente (la lectura de hoy), después de cruzar otra vez el lago, las personas que habían sido alimentadas milagrosamente estaban buscando otra vez a Jesús. Sin embargo, lo hacen (como Jesús lo dice) “no porque vieron signos, sino porque comieron los panes y quedaron satisfechos” (Juan 6:6).

En el Evangelio de Juan, la palabra “signo” tiene un significado distinto. En la boda de Caná, después de contar cómo Jesús convirtió el agua en vino, el evangelista menciona que “Jesús hizo esto como el principio de sus signos” que “revelaron su gloria, y sus discípulos empezaron a creer en él” (Juan 2:11). Para Juan, signos no son solo milagros para contemplar, sino que se tratan de la revelación de Dios y de una respuesta de fe en Jesús.

O TAL VEZ EL SIGNO ES EL MILAGRO

Cuando la multitud llega por primera vez, Jesús observa que no han apreciado el signo que él ya había hecho; pues la multitud está enfocada en su hambre física. Y cuando piden por un signo, “para que podamos ver y creer en tí” (Juan 6:30), se refieren a sus antepasados que comieron el maná en el desierto. ¿Puede Jesús superar eso? ¿Puede él darles más pan que les alivie de sus preocupaciones diarias por pasar hambre?

Jesús le recuerda a la multitud que no fue Moisés quien dio el “pan del cielo”, sino el Padre. Además, el Padre puede darles el pan verdadero del cielo que baja y da vida al mundo. Hay una semejanza entre el lenguaje griego al decir trabajar por la comida que se echa a perder y hacer las obras de Dios, lo cual es creer en Jesús como el enviado de Dios. Este es el signo que la gente no vio el día anterior, el signo que Jesús les está indicando.

...continuó desde

Como el evangelista, la Iglesia utiliza la palabra “signo” para sus sacramentos. Como la multitud, estamos llamados a ver de igual manera los “signos” de la generosidad de Dios en todas las bendiciones de nuestra vida.
