Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

OUR DEEPEST NEEDS

The word of God serves up a tremendous feast for us today. Isaiah beckons all who hunger and thirst to come to the Lord for satisfaction. The psalmist cries out, "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs" (Psalm 145:16). Saint Paul tells us that nothing can separate us from the love of God. Finally, in the Gospel, we hear the story of the miraculous feeding of over five thousand people from a mere five loaves and two fish. Most of us have our material needs met on a day-to-day basis. These scriptures, nevertheless, have much to say to the contemporary believer.

We must ask ourselves, "Where are my deepest hungers? Where are my thirsts?" After material needs are satisfied and, in some cases, over-satisfied, many people still experience a deep longing for spiritual balance and well-being. As the loaves and fish are multiplied in today's Gospel, perhaps our prayer can be a longing for the satisfaction of the deepest needs that only God can fill.

Decimotavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

NUESTRAS NECESIDADES MÁS PROFUNDAS

La Palabra de Dios nos brinda hoy una tremenda fiesta. Isaías llama a todos los que tienen hambre y sed para que vengan a satisfacerse en el Señor. El salmista proclama: "Abres tú la mano, y sacias de favores a todo viviente" (Salmo 145:16). San Pablo nos dice que nada puede separarnos del amor de Dios. Finalmente, en el Evangelio, escuchamos sobre el milagro de la multiplicación de los cinco panes y dos pescados con que se alimentaron a más de cinco mil personas. Nuestras necesidades diarias suelen estar cubiertas. Sin embargo, estas lecturas tienen mucho que decir al creyente contemporáneo.

Debemos preguntarnos: "¿Dónde está mi hambre más profunda? ¿De qué estoy sediento?". Una vez satisfechas las necesidades materiales y, en algunos casos, más que satisfechas, mucha gente sigue ansiando tener equilibrio y bienestar espiritual. Al multiplicarse los panes y pescados en el Evangelio de hoy, tal vez nuestra oración es anhelar que nuestras necesidades más hondas sean satisfechas por el único que puede hacerlo: Dios.

Our readings today remind us of our hunger and thirst, and how God works within us. We human beings are created dependent on food and water, and much more. And God deeply desires that our needs be met. Our physical hunger and thirst point to our deeper hungers: our need for meaning, purpose, and belonging; and most of all, for unity with God. In Matthew's Gospel passage today, Jesus' heart is moved with compassion for the people. Jesus not only cures the sick and feeds the multitude, he also establishes bonds of community through the shared meal. Saint Paul shows us that nothing can ultimately separate us from God. Isaiah reminds us of God's ongoing invitation to us to come and receive. God's gifts cannot be earned or purchased. God's grace is offered in abundance. God's nourishment is the very best possible, and we should accept no substitutes.

NOTHING CAN SEPARATE US

Today's passage from Saint Paul's letter to the Romans concludes Chapter 8 with a flourish. It is the exclamation point of Paul's teaching on the presence of the Spirit within them and among them. The church in Rome faced great suffering as they were marginalized and persecuted for their faith. Paul names both social and cosmic forces that oppress them, over which they have no control. Their trials likely provoked questions that led them to wonder, "Where is God?"

Paul teaches that God is so deeply present within us that nothing can separate us from God. This includes our own forms of resistance. Even when we find myriad ways to avoid and run away, God is waiting patiently. Even when God seems distant or absent, God continues to invite, to welcome, and to speak to us.

IMAGINING GOD'S ABUNDANCE

When reflecting upon today's Gospel passage from Matthew, the story of the feeding of the multitude, we might consider the role of Jesus' disciples. Unlike the very similar story in Matthew 15, Jesus responds to the disciples by saying, "Give them some food yourselves". Jesus is pushing his disciples to think beyond the apparent scarcity, and to open their imaginations to God's abundance. They are to join in with what God is doing. Jesus then takes, blesses, breaks, and shares the bread (anticipating his action at the Last Supper), and the disciples share the loaves with the crowd.

The stories of the feeding of the multitudes also point ahead to the practice of Eucharist in the Church. The Eucharist itself points ahead to God's banquet at the consummation of the reign of God, when all will share God's abundance. We the Church are called to open our imaginations to God present and active, who continually works toward God's promised future. We are to share in God's passionate desire to feed the people, and join in what God is doing here and now.

NADA PUEDE SEPARARNOS

El pasaje de hoy de la carta de san Pablo a los romanos, capítulo 8, termina con una frase muy adornada con diferente y bellas palabras que contrastan. El punto de exclamación es el punto de la enseñanza de Pablo acerca de la presencia del Espíritu dentro y en medio de ellos. La Iglesia en Roma en ese tiempo enfrentó un gran sufrimiento pues la comunidad fue marginada y perseguida a causa de su fe. Pablo menciona fuerzas tanto sociales como cósmicas que los oprimen, sobre las cuales no tienen control. Sus dificultades probablemente hicieron que tuvieran dudas que los hicieran preguntarse: “¿dónde está Dios?”

Pablo enseña que Dios está tan profundamente presente en nosotros que nada puede separarnos de Dios. Esto incluye nuestras propias formas de resistencia. Incluso cuando encontramos innumerables formas de evitar y huir, Dios está esperando pacientemente. Incluso cuando Dios parece estar distante o ausente, Dios continúa invitando, dando la bienvenida y hablándonos.

IMAGINANDO LA ABUNDANCIA DE DIOS

Al reflexionar hoy en el pasaje del Evangelio de Mateo, la historia de alimentar a la multitud, podríamos considerar el papel de los discípulos de Jesús. A diferencia de la historia muy similar en Mateo 15, Jesús responde a los discípulos diciéndoles “denles ustedes de comer”. Jesús fomenta a sus discípulos a pensar más allá de la aparente escasez, y a abrir su imaginación a la abundancia de Dios. Deben unirse a lo que Dios está haciendo. Entonces Jesús toma, bendice, parte y comparte el pan (anticipando lo que hará en la Última Cena), y los discípulos comparten los panes con la multitud.

Las historias en donde se alimenta a las multitudes también apuntan a la práctica de la Eucaristía en la Iglesia. La Eucaristía misma apunta hacia el banquete de Dios en la consumación del reino de Dios, cuando todos compartiremos la abundancia de Dios. Nosotros, la Iglesia, se nos llama a abrir nuestra imaginación a Dios presente y activo, que obra continuamente hacia el futuro prometido de Dios. Debemos compartir el deseo apasionado de Dios por alimentar a las personas y unirnos en lo que Dios está haciendo aquí y ahora.
